GREENBRAE QUARRY DUST STOPPER

Workers install a 30-ton, $20,000 device at the asphalt plant of the Hutchinson Co. quarry, 65 East Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, this morning as part of the company's program to hold down dust from the plant. The stack of the "Mist-O-Miser Dustraxtor" will emit a 99.9 per cent pure plume of steam as the machine cleans 36,000 cubic feet of air a minute. The company has been complying with regulations of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, but is putting in the machine to handle increased capacity.

Governor Breaks Pledge By Signing Gas Tax Increase

Measure Requested By Counties Designed To Raise $70 Million

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown broke his no-new tax pledge today and signed legislation increasing the state gasoline tax from six to seven cents a gallon.

"I don't see any way I could withhold executive approval of this bill," he said after a public hearing on the measure by Sen. Randolph Collier (D-Yreka).

The measure is designed to raise 70 million dollars a year for improving city streets and county roads. It also provides a financing plan for rapid transit facilities in metropolitan areas.

Brown noted that he had promised not to seek new taxes this year in his 1962 re-election campaign.

A COMMITMENT

"I made a commitment and I wanted to keep it," he said.

But he said there was an overwhelming demand from the cities and counties for the bill.

Fifty-seven of the state's 58 counties asked for it and every city gave its support.

Collier told Brown that by 1965 counties will need 1.36 billion dollars for road work and the cities 1.4 billion dollars.

"They cannot provide this under the property tax," he said. "The only source is a user tax, gathered statewide."

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), said he didn't view the measure as a new tax "in light of the tremendous deficiencies. It is more of a substitute or an alternative than a new tax."

UNRUH AUTHOR

Unruh was the author of the rapid transit feature of the measure which will permit county boards of supervisors to impose a tax of one-half of one per cent of vehicle registration fees for the transit facilities.

The provision could raise 38 million dollars a year if every county in the state took advantage of it.

Only one opponent, William J. Moore of Auburn, representing the Western Liquid Gas Assn., appeared at the hearing.

He objected to taxing propane gas, which he said was mostly used by trucks. Diesel fuel, also used by trucks, would not be taxed, he said.

William J. McDougall of the County Supervisors Assn. called the measure "a tough bill" forcing the local governments to use the money only for main roads that will take the pressure off the state highway system.

Richard Carpenter of the League of California Cities told Brown that he didn't think Brown had ever made a campaign committment "that concerns this bill."

Brown replied that he "was thinking about state government and state problems" when he promised no new taxes, but added that "it's awfully hard. I don't think a person in public life should make a committment unless he can live up to it."

"You have not made the request," Carpenter said. "It was requested by the cities and counties."

Youth Is Crushed On Tiburon Job

Helpless Father Watches

A 20-year-old Sonoma County youth was crushed between an earth loader and a two-axle truck yesterday in Tiburon as his father stood by, helpless.

Douglas Clark Landrus was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 3:15 p.m., about a half-hour after the accident on a steep hillside on Redhill Circle, 55 feet south of Lyford Drive.

A quick examination by Asst. County Coroner William C. Bradley showed Landrus suffered a broken arm and hip and internal and head injuries. An autopsy was to be performed today.

ACCOUNT OF ACCIDENT

The accident happened in the following manner, according to Bradley and California Highway Patrol Officer James Greer:

A truck driven by Edwin Wallace Warner, 51, of 806 Diablo Avenue, Novato, became stuck on the hillside from which it had been hauling dirt.

Ralph K. Suernram, 33, of 537 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, backed the earth loader he was driving down to the truck to pull out the truck.

Warner and Landrus attached a cable from the earth loader to the truck, but had difficulty in securing it with a pin. Suernram, who had set the brake on the earth loader, walked back to show them how to attach the pin.

BRAKE SNAPS

Suernram said he heard the brake "snap off" and yelled to the two. Warner stepped back but Landrus was trapped between the earth loader and bumper of the heavy truck.

Landrus was working for his father, Laurence, who is trucking contractor on the construction project. His father was watching the operation a few feet away.

The youth was on leave from the Air Force. He is survived by his father and his mother, Elsie, of Windsor.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

LABORER IS FOUND ON HIGHWAY, DIES

Sausalitan's Death Mystery For Sonoma Sheriff's Office

A Sausalito laborer, found crawling along Highway 101 near Cotati yesterday morning, died soon afterward in Petaluma General Hospital.

The death of Dudley Taylor, 24, of 316 Third Street, left Sonoma County sheriff's officers with a mystery. There was no sign of foul play, no external injury and no conclusion on the cause of death.

Robbery was ruled out because Taylor still had his wallet and money in his pockets.

Taylor's father, Pete Taylor, business agent for the Welders Union, said his son had left the house at 2 p.m., Tuesday for a walk downtown, and never returned.

Sheriff's deputies found witnesses who saw Taylor walking north on the highway north of Petaluma shortly after midnight.

HEADING SOUTH

He was seen heading south by attendants at a service station at Cotati. He told one of them he was going to be a jockey at the Sonoma County Fair, but Taylor weighed more than 200 pounds.

Sheriff's officers said they had been told Taylor had suffered a mental breakdown about a week ago, but the victim's father said he told sheriff's officers nothing of the kind, and added that the young man had been using no medication.

The elder Taylor said Dr. M. L. Nielsen at the Petaluma hospital told him he found evidence of a brain concussion, but coroner's investigator Donald Noriel later said an autopsy showed no signs of injury.

A toxicologist's report is expected tomorrow.

CLOTHES CHECK

Meanwhile, the California Highway Patrol sent Taylor's clothes to Sacramento for a check for paint flecks or other evidence that he may have been hit by a car.

Taylor was discovered crawling along the freeway in the southbound lane by James Harris of Sebastopol. Harris said he tried to question the man, but that he only mumbled incoherently and collapsed.

Taylor is also survived by his mother, Gladys L. Taylor.

Funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary, Sausalito. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Colma.

Nuclear Test Ban Hopes Increasing

MOSCOW (UPI) — Top-level U. S., British and Soviet negotiators met anew today in the Moscow three-power nuclear conference amid increasing indications an agreement may be reached soon on a partial test ban.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, U. S. Undersecretary of State W. Averill Harriman and British Science Minister Lord Halisham opened the fourth session of the Big Three talks at 4:30 p.m.

The negotiations resumed in the wake of a Washington news conference statement by President John F. Kennedy that he was "hopeful" the negotiators would agree to halting nuclear tests in the atmosphere, underwater and in space.

A three-power communique issued in Moscow last night said that "progress" had been made in drafting treaty provision. The rival East and West drafts already put forward at the Moscow nuclear talks were understood to be fairly close in positions.

The Big Three talks began an hour and a half later than scheduled today because of a lunch Gromyko gave for visiting East German Foreign Minister Lothar Boltz.

East German sources said Boltz was in Moscow to discuss the Berlin problem in connection with the three-power talks.

The consultations between Soviet and East German leaders during the nuclear conference led to speculation that another move might be in the works to try to solve the Berlin problem.

President Is Mobbed By Teeners

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was mobbed today— in his own back yard— by more than 2,500 high school students from 56 countries who converged on him in hopes of a handshake or autograph.

Kennedy took a severe buffeting, as the youngsters pushed and shoved to get to his side after clambering over and around rope barriers.

Secret service agents and White House police had to use elbows and shoulders in a not-too-gentle struggle to keep the crowd from knocking the president down and possibly causing a new injury to his weak back.

One White House policeman, Lt. Edward Teehan, collapsed while trying to control the mob and was carried into the Cabinet room by two officers.

Rear Adm. George Burkley, assistant White House physician, administred first aid. Teehan revived and later seemed to have made a quick recovery.

The mob scene erupted on the south lawn of the White House after Kennedy addressed the cheering, singing students, who soon will return to their homelands after spending a year in American high schools under an American Field Service Exchange program.

Robert Kennedy Says Injustices Behind Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy testified today the administration's civil rights bill was submitted to Congress "because there are injustices that should be remedied, not because demonstrations are taking place."

He took this stand before the Senate Judiciary Committee when Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.) asked him if the basis for asking for the legislation was not that "we now are having troublesome times" with racial demonstrations in all parts of the country.

"No, that is not correct," Kennedy replied.

The legislation was not offered before these demonstrations occurred," said Ervin.

The exchange took place after Kennedy had testified the seven-point civil rights bill, particularly the section to ban segregation in places of public accommodation, was aimed at "stamping out the fires of racial discord in our land."

Kennedy was making his third appearance on Capitol Hill to appeal for passage of the legislation. But it was his first time before the Judiciary Committee, which is headed by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) and has other Southern foes of the bill among its top-ranking members.

Churchman Wonders About Short Skirts

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Rev. N. J. Ezekiel, head of the Lutheran Church of India, is puzzled by one aspect of American life.

"With so much wealth in your country, with so much money to buy beautiful cloth," he said yesterday at a church conference, "I'm surprised American girls and women wear their skirts so short."

Uprising Crushed In Syria

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria's Ba'athist government announced today it had crushed an uprising led by civilians and discharged officers.

A spokesman for Maj. Gen. Amin Hafez, strongman of the Syrian army, went on Damascus radio and declared that the revolt was finished and the situation was under control.

There was no immediate indication of the political leanings of the rebels. However, a successful coup against Syria's Ba'athist socialist government would have pleased the Arab nationalist followers of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

"A band of plotters consisting of a number of civilians supported by a small number of discharged military men made an abortive attempt to disturb peace in the Damascus district," Hafez said.

"This band was beaten and crushed and the rest of the elements gave up. Nothing has happened to disturb order in the other districts of Syria.

"The plotters will be turned over to the national security courts."

The dramatic announcement was broadcast after Damascus radio was strangely silent for two hours.

Diplomatic reports reaching Beirut said that tanks, automatic weapons and small arms had been in action in the capital earlier while the plotters tried to seize the army headquarters and radio station.

Beckwith Mental Exam Is Ordered

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A mental examination was ordered today for Byron de la Beckwith, charged with assassinating Negro civil rights leader Medgar Evers.

District Atty. Bill Waller, who raised the question of sanity, included the proceedings from two Beckwith divorce suits to back his move.

The defense contended Beckwith was capable of helping prepare a rational defense and therefore, in the legal definition, is sane.

Witnesses included Dr. Roland Toms, a University of Mississippi medical school psychiatrist. He said he treated Beckwith last year.

Awards For U.C.

Firemen Save Girl In Pool

Susan Smith, 7-year-old Mill Valley girl, was revived by mouth-to-mouth respiration today after nearly drowning in a swimming pool at the Ebbtide Apartments in Sausalito.

Sausalito firemen, who gave oxygen to Susan at about 11:30 a.m., said the girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kellogg Smith of 41 Midway Avenue, was reported to be "turning blue" when she was taken from the pool. The name of the person who gave mouth-to-mouth respiration was not learned.

Firemen took the girl to Marin General Hospital where she was reported in "good condition." She was to be transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

Span To Appeal For State Funds

President Ben K. Lerer of the Golden Gate Bridge District today said he and other district directors from San Francisco and Marin counties will appeal to the State Highway Commission Monday for state funds for widening the San Francisco approach to the bridge.

San Francisco supervisors have refused to approve a through freeway linking the Golden Gate and San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridges which the highway commission said would be necessary to obtain federal funds for the widening project.

Flood Control Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Public Works Committee approved today $120,000 for an Army Engineers survey of California's upper Putah Creek looking toward a possible flood control project. Rep. Robert L. Leggett (D-Calif.) proposed the survey.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

'Miss U.S.A.' Named In Universe Fete

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Marita Ozers, a foreign-born blonde model who doesn't like to wear skimpy bikinis, was crowned the new "Miss U.S.A." last night at the "Miss Universe" pageant.

"Miss U.S.A."

The 19-year-old daughter of a carpenter will join 44 foreign beauties tonight in the semi-finals of the contest.

The finals Saturday night will be televised.

Miss Ozers, who represented Illinois in the "Miss U.S.A." competition, was born in Riga, Latvia, and immigrated to the United States to escape Communist oppression 13 years ago.

After being crowned by the outgoing "Miss U.S.A.", Macel Leilani Wilson of Hawaii, Miss Ozers said the first thing she wanted to do was call her parents and grab a bite to eat.

3 Yanks Killed In South Viet Nam

SAIGON (UPI) — Three American soldiers, two of them officers, were killed in South Viet Nam today when a Communist mine exploded in Binh Long Province near the Cambodian border, it was announced.

A U.S. military spokesman said the victims were a U.S. special force sergeant and two captains.

The new deaths raised to 97 the number of Americans who have died in South Viet Nam since January, 1961.

Acrobat Falls To Death Before 3,500

SALEM, Ore. (UPI) — A 33-year-old circus acrobat fell 25 feet to her death during a performance of the Rudy Brothers Shrine Circus here yesterday before a crowd of 3,500 persons.

The audience which saw Mrs. Arthur Duchek fall was not aware the fall was fatal. She toppled from a high wire during an act billed as the "Cosmos."

The show went on while Mrs. Duchek was carried behind the scenes. A doctor said she suffered a broken neck.

She tumbled 25 feet to a concrete floor and died minutes later en route to a hospital.

Douglas Says Africans Get Bad U.S. News

NEW YORK (UPI)—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, returning from a seven-nation tour of Africa, said yesterday the Africans have a "distorted picture of what President John F. Kennedy is doing in the field of civil rights."

"They think President Kennedy is only temporizing and squeaking by without really doing anything about it," Douglas said.

"It was difficult for us to get our story across. Their picture of America is a very distorted one—a caricature of America—not the America we know."

In a news conference at Idlewild Airport, Douglas said that "news from America that reaches the African nations is always bad news."

He's Steaming Mad

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Kurt Frings, Elizabeth Taylor's agent, complained to Superior Court Judge Burnett Wolfson yesterday that his estranged wife, playwright Kotti Frings, has violated a court order by excluding him from the steamroom at their Beverly Hills home.

She left the state, he said, after changing the locks on the building.

Mrs. Frings has a separate maintenance suit pending. Last April the couple agreed that she would occupy their home but that Frings would have limited steam bath privileges.

Wall Street 'Calm' After SEC Criticism

By ROGER LANE
A.P. Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Jitters gave way to relative calm in Wall Street today as the financial capital studied searching criticism of some key stock market practices.

Presidents of the nation's two largest securities marts worked on rebuttal to an unexpectedly severe report filed with Congress by Securities and Exchange Commission investigators yesterday.

Amid outcries of dismay from some brokers, G. Keith Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange, held his peace. So did Edwin D. Etherington, president of the American Stock Exchange.

They said time was required to digest the 2,100-page installment of SEC inquiry findings, sequel to a milder report last April.

However, Etherington promised to voice his opinions of "ill-advised" comments in the report.

The SEC special study committee assailed several time-honored stock market practices, mostly concerned with the market's inside workings rather than activities directly touching the public.

It called for new curbs on short selling, floor traders and stock specialists, tighter supervision of trading in unlisted securities in the over-the-counter market and an improved system for handling odd-lot or small volume transactions.

To the financial community's relief, there was no blanket demand for segregating the broker and dealer functions of many Wall Street firms.

One section of the report urged elimination of floor traders by Jan. 2, 1965. It said these brokers who buy and sell for their own account, enjoy unfair advantages over others.

Of 1,366 New York Exchange members, a small minority indulge in much floor trading—quick turnover deals. Fifteen of them account for one-half the volume in this category.

The SEC said they are unburdened by the need to pay commissions and favored by knowledge not yet public.

Specialists—exchange members, assigned to manage trading in specific stocks and to steady tendencies toward abrupt price fluctuation, number 360 on the New York Stock Exchange.

All exchange transcations are funneled through them, however. SEC investigators said their activities were inadequately policed.

By selling stocks in the sharp market break of May 28, 1962 — Black Monday — some "seemed to contribute to the 'pounding down' of prices," the report said.

Another segment of the report dealt with the asserted need for greater reliability in stock quotation sheets published by the National Quotation Bureau Inc. on prices of over-the-counter issues. These are stocks which are not listed on any organized stock exchange. Greater supervisory cotrol by the SEC was recommended.

News of the report, released early in the afternoon, sent stock prices into a fairly lively retreat yesterday. They recovered part of the loss but ended lower.

Cambridge Negro Leaders Call Off Demonstrations For Peace Parley

Combined AP & UPI

CAMBRIDGE, Md. — Negro leaders tentatively called off demonstrations for at least another week today following announcement that Gov. J. Millard Tawes would ask a committee of distinguished attorneys to help bring about racial peace here.

Thomas B. Finan, Maryland attorney general, made the announcement from the steps of the Cambridge Armory shortly after midnight.

While Finan met with Negro leaders last night, a general donnybrook broke out among six white men, state police and a news photographer. The brawl errupted after a minor auto accident near the armory.

Fists flew and cameras were being used as clubs before the fight was broken up by police and the six white men taken into protective custody. No charges placed.

At Charleston, S. C., about 800 Negroes held a mass rally without incident last night. National Guardsmen remained on standby alert.

Gov. Donald S. Russell ordered about 100 state troopers here yesterday after six policemen and a fireman were injured in a rock and bottle throwing demonstration by Negroes Tuesday night.

Sixty-eight Negroes arrested in the melee were to be arraigned today on riot charges.

In Chicago, police entered the offices of the Chicago Board of Education today and broke up an eight-day-old sit-in demonstration. Ten persons were arrested.

The demonstrators were protesting alleged segregation in Chicago public schools. Their plan was to force the board into holding a special meeting to put new district boundary rules into effect.

Finance Officer Is Found Dead

ANTIOCH (AP) — Police said Duane Rough, 50, finance officer of neighboring Pittsburg, was found dead yesterday in an Antioch motel room he rented Sunday under another name.

Contra Costa coroner's officers said a preliminary autopsy failed to determine cause of death. A full examination was ordered to include the contents of a drinking glass and a soft drink bottle found near the body.

Rough leaves his wife and three children.

Antioch authorities said a routine audit of Rough's books had been ordered recently.

Dressers, cabinets, chairs, commodes, food carts, patient hoists and a sterilizing machine are among the first items to be sold. All pieces will be sold in lots, Hettrich said—all of a kind or nothing.

Sealed bids for the equipment may be submitted to Hettrich before July 30 at 1 p.m.

D. C. RIGHTS MARCH APPROVED BY JFK

President Applauds Peaceful Racial Protests While Decrying Any Violence

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has given his blessings to the late-August civil rights demonstration planned for the national capital and says, "I look forward to being here."

This was the highlight of a Kennedy news conference yesterday in which he applauded peaceful racial protests while decrying those which can lead to violence and bloodshed.

The session with newsmen—Kennedy's first in Washington in eight weeks—covered a wide range of topics including:

Business and Taxes: The president said business is better than expected, tax receipts consequently have exceeded predictions and, as a result, last year's budget deficit totaled 6.2 billion dollars compared with a January forecast of 8.8 billion. He said this bolsters his argument that a 10-billion-dollar tax cut would boost the economy still further and eventually balance the budget.

Cold War Talks: Kennedy said he is "still hopeful" that the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union can achieve some kind of nuclear test ban treaty in the current Moscow talks. But he thinks talk of a possible summit meeting is premature.

Moon Race: The president wants a continued effort to put an American on the moon in this decade in order to show "the capacity to dominate space." He treated as inconclusive British scientist Bernard Lovell's report that the Soviets may be losing interest in the moon race.

Rail Strike: Kennedy again urged the railroads and operating unions to settle their work rules dispute before a threatened nationwide strike July 29. He said both sides would be much better off to work things out themselves. If a strike comes, Kennedy said he will ask Congress to end it by legislation.

In talking about civil rights, Kennedy scoffed at a claim by Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace that racial demonstrations have been Communist-inspired.

"We have no evidence," he said, "that any of the leaders of the civil rights movements in the United States are Communists. We have no evidence that the demonstrations are Communist-inspired. I think it is a convenient scapegoat to suggest that all the difficulties are Communist."

Kennedy said those who complain about organized protests should "do something about the grievances" that prompt them. He suggested it is illogical to say, "don't protest," and at the same time assert, "We are not going to let you come into a store or a restaurant."

As for the Washington demonstration, scheduled for Aug. 28, Kennedy said it shapes up as "a peaceful assembly calling for a redress of grievances" and undertaken through cooperation with the police.

In promising to be in the capital at the time, Kennedy added what amounted to a challenge to Congress by adding, "I am sure members of Congress will be here."

There has been some talk that the legislators might take a long Labor Day holiday—starting in late August.

Kennedy contrasted the planned Washington demonstration with those now in progress at Cambridge, Md., where there has been rioting and bloodshed.

Speaking of Cambridge, he said: "They have almost lost sight of what the demonstration is about."

On other topics, Kennedy said:

There is no need for more formal diplomatic contacts with the Vatican because there is no lack of two-way communication at present.

He hopes South Viet Niem will resolve its religious disputes because the military situation there looks more hopeful and a stable government is needed.

Red China seems bent on promoting nuclear war but Kennedy doubts the Soviet Union is anxious to face destruction by supplying the weapons.

The United States condemns the racial policy of the Republic of South Africa but doesn't believe in expelling countries from the United Nations.

San Rafael Academy Gets Accreditation

Five years accreditation renewal with "congratulations on the quality of work being done in the school," has been announced for the San Rafael Military Academy by the Western Assn. of Schools and Colleges.

Previous accreditation was made by the University of California, but accreditation functions have been taken over by the association. Five years is the maximum accreditation granted.

Sen. McCarthy Lists Brown's 'Deceptions'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) has accused Gov. Edmund G. Brown of "manufacturing shallow political myths to justify his new tax program."

The GOP Senate leader, in a statement issued last night, charged that the Democratic governor's position "is riddled with contradiction and deception."

McCarthy listed the "myths" as:

1. That a new budget and new taxes are necessary to provide money for crippled children, scholarships and mental health programs. "The surplus from the austerity budget alone provides every single dime necessary for these projects," said McCarthy.

2. That Republican opposition is based on politics. McCarthy said it is Brown who is playing politics, to raise enough money now to avoid taxes in an election year.

3. That the state must be financed on a two-year basis. McCarthy called annual budgets a "sensible sound system."

4. That Brown will accept compromise. McCarthy said that when the governor was offered a compromise, he said "you don't compromise in these things."

5. That the current budget depends on Brown's bank and corporation tax bill. McCarthy said none of the revenue from the acceleration features of the bill will be available for two years.

Another Senate Republican, Richard J. Dolwig of Redwood City, introduced legislation which would restore about 10 million dollars in spending to the budget. Brown asked for 114 million dollars, and the Senate trimmed it to 84 million dollars.

Dolwig said his bill, coauthored by all Senate Republicans, would cover all essential services and could be financed from exisiting sources of revenue.

"The governor can demonstrate that he puts vital state services ahead of partisan politics by supporting this legislation," said Dolwig in a statement.

Park Bond Issue On '64 Ballot

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he had signed into law a bill to place a new 150-million-dollar park and beach bond issue on the 1964 ballot.

Voters defeated a similar bond issue in June 1962.

"This is one of the most important measures to come out of the legislature this session," Brown said of the bill (SB-153) by Sen. Ronald G. Cameron (D-Auburn).

"To meet the recreational needs of this state, we must begin now to acquire beaches and park land which surely will be lost forever unless we act at once."

He said the bond issue failed last year "for only one reason: We did not have time enough to inform the public of the urgent need to acquire park land.

"We have time now and I am sure the people of California will respond to preserve one of the state's greatest assets—our magnificent forests, beaches, deserts and water recreational areas."

The bill also establishes a state park and recreation and finance committee.

Brown yesterday announced he had signed a number of other measures, including a series of bills spelling out citizens' rights in suing the state for personal injury and damage.

The seven bills correct a situation which occurred when the State Supreme Court overturned a ruling that public agencies were immune to personal injury and damage suits resulting from employee negligence or improper maintenance of public facilities.

The bills permit such suits under certain circumstances. Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) authorized the measures.

Gov. Brown Also Signed These Bills:

AB-1853 Milias: Increases maximum school district tax rate by amount necessary to produce expenditures for adult education programs.

AB-1870 Lunardi: Requires operator of a vessel involved in an accident to file an accident report unless he is unable to do so, in which case the owner of the vessel must file a report if he knows about the accident.

AB-1920 Casey: Provides that if a person is employed by a school in a post requiring certificate qualifications for one semester, he must be paid at least half of the annual salary for the post.

AB-1956 Garrigus: Provides that any person who negligently, wilfully or maliciously handles water in such a way that it damages a road or highway or makes traffic hazardous is guilty of a misdemeanor.

AB-1960 Burgener-Milias: Provides that a handicapped child shall not be denied services provided by the state or county for handicapped children because he is mentally retarded.

AB-2021 Petris: Corrects inequities in present requirements for the licensing of medical doctors coming to California from other countries or states.

AB-2050 Frew: Provides for a program of nursing education scholarships to be administered by the state department of public health during 1964-65 if funds are subsequently made available.

AB-2146 Powers: Extends $1,500 stock-in-trade exemption now granted to a blind person operating a vending stand to all stands licensed pursuant to federal and state law.

AB-2341 Quimby: Requires state agencies to study detergents, the effect of detergent residues on state waters, and the need for development of standards for biodegradability of synthetic detergents, with a report to be made to the legislature.

AB-2413 Thelin: Provides that various powers and duties of peace officers relating to taking possession, care and disposition of animals also apply to officers of pounds and animal regulation departments of public agencies.

AB-2445 Elliott: Makes it a misdemeanor for anyone over 16 years old who is not a pupil to wilfully interfere with the discipline and good order of any class or activity on school property.

AB-2450 Carrell: Expands and clarifies the law requiring slow moving vehicles to use the right-hand lane.

AB-2637 Johnson-Warren and AB-2643 Unruh: Requires beaches and seashore recreation areas and access property to them, under jurisdiction of a city or county to be open to residents and non-residents alike.

AB-2760 Thomas: Authorizes fish and game commission to prohibit taking or possessing tuna in same manner as is done by federal law or by regulation of tuna conventions act of 1950.

AB-2929 Sot: Adds to definition of term unfair competition "unlawful" as well as unfair or fraudulent business practice and unfair, untrue or misleading advertising.

AB-3010 Britschgi: Increases maximum fees paid by applicants for cosmetologist, manicurist or electrologist licenses and deletes provisions requiring applicants for state licensing to pay an initial license fee.

AB-3071 Burton et al: Requires individual counseling and guidance in social and vocational matters to be provided as part of instructional program for mentally retarded minors; makes related changes.

Kennedy Asks Tax On Foreign Stocks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy, in a surprise move, asked Congress today to tax Americans on most purchases of foreign stocks and bonds. The aim is to help stem the outflow of gold and dollars.

Kennedy's recommendation was certain to have an immediate impact on international financial markets because it would affect American investments currently approaching the rate of two billion dollars a year.

The unprecedented proposal, put forth in a special message to Congress on the worrisome U. S. balance of payments problem, represented the boldest and most controversial attempt yet made by any administration to deal with the payments dilemma.

To discourage the mounting flow of American savings abroad, Kennedy called for a special excise tax ranging from 2.5 per cent to 15 per cent on the purchase price of securities issued by governments and businesses in 22 industrialized countries. The tax would go into effect tomorrow and remain on the books until Dec. 31, 1965.

Admittedly this would be strong medicine. But Kennedy said it would "help prevent pressures for more restrictive measures."

A second highlight of Kennedy's 5,500-word message was an announcement that—for the first time—the United States will exercise its right to draw money from the International Monetary Fund.

Starting Monday, the United States will begin drawing up to 500 million dollars in foreign currencies from the IMF. These currencies will be used by the U. S. Treasury to buy foreign-held dollars that otherwise might be used to purchase American gold.

Kennedy predicted that enactment of the excise tax plus other less dramatic moves under way or planned would trim nearly two billion dollars from the U. S. balance of payments deficit during the next 18 months.

In 1962 the deficit—the difference between the amount of money leaving the country and the lesser amount coming in—totaled 2.2 billion dollars. However, the deficit has been mounting this year and, in the April-June quarter, reached an annual rate of well over three billion dollars.

Continued deficits in international financial dealings mean that foreigners are piling up surplus dollars which they can use to buy American gold—the key to the strength of the dollar. In recent years, the U. S. gold stock has dropped from 22 to under 15.7 billion dollars.

RADIO EXECUTIVE — Don B. Curran of 255 Country Club Drive, Ignacio, has been promoted to vice president of the American Broadcasting Co. Curran has been general manager of KGO radio in San Francisco since December of 1962. He entered the broadcasting field in 1947 and is past president of the Broadcasters Promotion Assn.

Portugal Sends Troops To Colonies

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Portugal has rushed military reinforcements to its rebel-threatened African colonies, government sources said today.

A government announcement yesterday said African revolutionists have seized control of 15 per cent of Portuguese Guinea, on Africa's west coast.

Even before the public announcement, five ships left Lisbon loaded with troops. Two of them were bound for Guinea.

The government also granted a 32-million-dollar special credit for extraordinary expenses of military forces abroad.

Defense Minister Manuel Gomes D'Araujo charged the rebels slipped into the West African colony from neighboring Senegal and robbed, killed and intimidated the population into helping them.

There was no immediate comment from the Senegalese government.

Women Drivers Record Of Safety

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Despite all kidding, women drivers had a better safety record in Atlantic City than men during 1962.

Of 1,950 drivers involved in traffic accidents, only 250 were women.

None of the 10 drivers involved in fatal accidents was a woman.

Missile Torture At Air Base

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — In an unassuming white building at Redstone Arsenal, home of the Army Missile Command, the engines and systems of future missiles are frozen, baked, drenched, salt-splashed, sunburned, sand-blasted and shook up in a series of torture chambers called the Preflight Evaluation Laboratory.

If a rocket survives this gantlet of man-made weather, it may very well be trucked to the Motor Conditioning Facility, shoved into one of three insulated cells, and subjected to intense heat or extreme cold for as long as six months.

Then it is taken to a static test stand and fired.

Pays To Mop

DENVER (AP)—A holdup man fired his gun pointblank at 17-year-old Iris Sutton in a neighborhood grocery, but she wasn't hit. The bullet struck the wooden handle of a mop she was holding, splintered it and ricocheted into a milk dispenser. The man ran.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Foreign stocks paced a brisk selloff late today on news of President John F. Kennedy's proposals that Americans be taxed on purchases of foreign securities. The stock market closed lower.

The ticker tape ran late as the market—which had been recovering earlier—erased a gain and declined.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3.4 million shares compared with 3.95 million yesterday.

One-Way Trip

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The first steamboat on the Ohio River was the New Orleans, which moved down the Ohio and Mississippi in 1811 and stayed in New Orleans. The first to navigate up the Ohio to Louisville was the Enterprise, in 1815.

Blind Told To Get Out Of Eatery

Doughnut maker Gilbert Morgan, owner of the Golden Creme Do-Nut Shop on B Street in San Rafael, today ordered three blind men and their guide dogs out of his shop.

"That dog grabbed a doughnut off my rack," Morgan stormed later. "They kept barking and fighting. I just couldn't put up with it."

But three other patrons in the shop, seated next to the group, said the dogs were sitting quietly under the table while their masters drank coffee.

The group, training at Guide Dogs for the Blind in Los Ranchitos, were Fletcher Hicks, former San Rafael High School English teacher, with his dog Bart; Kenneth Metz, 17, of Panorama City, with Cub, and and Russell Redenbaugh, 18, of Utah, with Minka. Their trainer, Larry Henegar of Mill Valley, had left the doughnut shop after helping them get seated.

The three left after Morgan ordered them out.

"I couldn't have a whole pack of dogs in here," said Morgan. "One dog is all right, but three's a pile of big dogs."

The group entered the shop at 1013 B Street, around 9:30 a.m. "Those dogs got to fighting," explained Morgan. "I asked if they could take them outside. . . .

"Those people put up a pretty stiff argument. They said they had rights. Finally I got tough. As they started out, one dog reached in my case and grabbed another doughnut. I had to throw away four dozen doughnuts."

"Those dogs were under the table," said Effie Blanchard, bookkeeper at the Independent-Journal, who sat at the next table with Bea Faulkner and Norma Wenger.

"Evidently someone stepped on one of the dog's paws, and he gave a little yelp like an ouch. That's all," said Mrs. Blanchard.

Dogs are prohibited by state law from entering restaurants, but Section 643.5 of the Penal Code specifically exempts guide dogs accompanying blind persons.

MIAMI (AP)—Robert Meeks knows his fishing partner's tackle pretty well. In fact, he can spot it 10 yards away, and on a cloudy day.

Meeks was fishing in the Everglades when he saw a brass handled fishing knife being used by another fisherman, on down the river.

Meeks, sure is belonged to his friend, Carl Dennis, summoned a sheriff. Dennis got back his rods, spinners and tackle box, all stolen from his home.

Udall Praises Brown On Water

SACRAMENTO (AP) — U.S. Interior Secretary Stewart Udall said today he thinks Gov. Edmund G. Brown "pointed down the right road" when he suggested federal help in expanding California's water facilities as a result of the Supreme Court's Colorado River decision.

Udall, in Sacramento to talk with Brown about water problems and to help officially open the city's new deep-water port, said he felt something along the lines Brown suggested could be worked out.

In an appearance later before a joint session of the Assembly and the Senate, Udall said he sees a "tremendous challenge" in developing a broad-base approach to natural resources.

Braden-Rafferty Feud Continues As Brown Tries To Be Peacemaker

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A truce in the bitter feud between Thomas W. Braden and Dr. Maxwell G. Rafferty appears as remote as ever today, despite Gov. Edmund G. Brown's indirect offer to act as a peacemaker.

The running battle has taken on all the aspects of a political campaign, with each man attacking the other's policies in speeches up and down the state.

Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, and Braden, president of the State Board of Education, have differed sharply in recent weeks on many issues, including the controversial Dictionary of American Slang and whether the board has been too lenient with teachers accused of sex offenses.

And despite statements in January, when Rafferty took office, that he and the board agreed on 99 per cent of all educational issues, more policy differences keep popping up.

Governor Brown said yesterday that he saw no need for "this continuing warfare," and suggested a possible dinner meeting at the Executive Mansion to iron out differences.

Each man immediately let it be known that he was not the one to blame for the dispute.

Rafferty, in a television interview, said he thought the battle wasn't helping California's children, but added:

"Anytime anyone wants to stop this personal feud all they have to do is stop."

Braden, reached at his Oceanside newspaper, said:

"I would welcome hearing from Dr. Rafferty on the subject of . . . real problems, rather than on his opinions as to whether he is more in favor of protecting school children than our members of the board, or to name another of his favorite topics, whether he is for clean books while members of the board are in favor of dirty books."

Braden has accused Rafferty of "lacking good faith in dealing with the board of education," and of making false statements about board members and policies.

Rafferty, in turn, complained that Braden is "going up and down the state making personal attacks on me."

He said in a San Francisco speech that Braden's attacks "are not in the best interests of the state's children . . ." and added that Governor Brown had "recently told me he deplored such personal remarks by state officials."

Asked about Rafferty's proposed course in economics for high schools, Braden said he understood it was "an unemotional course in how to hate communism . . . I never thought I'd live to see the day when a leader in education would argue . . . the purpose of education is to indoctrinate."

The board president also accused Rafferty of saying the board was lenient with homosexuals," and commented that the charge "is so ridiculous as to deny the fact it was made by an educated man."

Rafferty replied that he had "never had harsh words for any of the board members, however I cannot say the same for many of them."

Since Rafferty took office seven months ago, he and Braden have been on opposite sides of multiple textbook adoption, defacto school segregation, who sets state educational policy, whether there are leftist learnings among state college faculties, whether state officials should recommend removing books from library shelves, whether indoctrination is a valid method of teaching, censorship, and just who is responsible for the feud in the first place.

239 Dogs Get Innoculations

Rabies innoculations were given to 293 dogs in two hours yesterday in Novato in special clinic promoted by the County Health Department.

Emma Gilman, department health educator, said the number was smaller than expected for Novato, but added that another clinic will be held at the Marion School on July 29.

The next clinic will be Tuesday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the city corporation yard on Sycamore Avenue Extension near Camino Alto, Mill Valley.

School Planning Extension Sought

Marin County Committee on School District Organization last night directed a request to the State Board of Education to grant a one-year extension for a county-wide master plan for district reorganization.

"If the state board doesn't grant an extension, let them do the master plan," said committee member Robert E. Rogers.

The committee agreed, however, that the state board would probably not hesitate to grant an extension one year beyond the Sept. 15 deadline originally set by the state legislature.

In an outline for a letter proposed by committee secretary Edwin L. Blackmore, the committee states that reorganization of the Tomales High School District area is "complicated by several factors."

Complications include: the area does not meet state standards for minimum student population for a unified district, reorganization of the Tamalpais District must be accomplished first, Sonoma County has made no satisfactory proposals for the area, and a proposed unification was already turned down by the state board.

Blackmore said "further study of the Tomales area may well result in encouraging the formation of union districts as an intermediate step."

Work of the committee during the next year will include public hearings on the proposed Tamalpais District unification and meetings of the North Marin Augmented Committee to study the proposals of consultants Booz-Allen and Hamilton for unification of San Jose and Dixie elementary districts, and of Novato and San Jose districts.

As a step toward "preparation" for public hearings on the Tamapais district, the committee agreed to seek members for a "public information committee," which will collect material on the history of the area and proposals for unification. The committee would later do similar work for the North Marin study.

Blackmore said the public information committee should represent its research to the county committee early in September so he may distribute information to newspapers and school organizations prior to public hearings, probably to begin in October.

County committee members suggested that members of the publicity committee should include representatives of parent-teacher associations, the League of Women Voters, and persons with "some knowledge" of public relations. Membership of the committee would be limited to five or six persons, and all information would be distributed by the county schools office.

Auction Bidders Get Hungry

LAGRANGE, Ky. (AP) — The LaGrange Kiwanis Club was grasping for money-making ideas when its scholarship fund for needy college students dipped to $25.

"Let's buy an old school bus, turn it into a traveling kitchen and sell lunches at real estate auctions all over the county," suggested club member Johnny Yochum.

In the one year interval, the club has paid for the bus and has more than $200 in its growing scholarship fund.

Union Stalls Big Carrier

DENVER (AP)—Teamsters Union pickets have stalled operations of Consolidated Freightways at its major motor carrier terminals in the West.

More than 1,000 employes have been idled at Denver, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, Ray Halloran, Consolidated Western general manager, said at Portland yesterday.

The teamsters established the picket lines in a dispute over the use of four nonunion drivers by Rule Co., Scottsbluff, Neb., which holds a subcontract from Consolidated to haul rocket fuel.

Neil Broadey, Consolidated's Western area labor relations director, said in Denver the firm is losing from $100,000 to $200,000 daily because of what he called the unauthorized strike.

He said consolidated plans to file a civil suit against the union to collect the losses.

Think now, it pays later...for your beneficiaries

Think, for instance, about what you could do for your family — and yourself — by establishing a Family Trust at Crocker-Anglo. It can mean a steady, planned income for you today and for your beneficiaries tomorrow. Steady income, too, while your estate is in probate.

Your trust would benefit from the broad experience of Crocker-Anglo's Trust Investment Committee, composed of senior officers. After analyzing economic trends, they meet weekly to review portfolios and the individual needs and goals of each family. Suppose, for example, a member of your family should be stricken by a prolonged illness, or presented with an outstanding business or educational opportunity? Because a Crocker-Anglo Family Trust is flexible, special funds could be released.

Isn't it time you relaxed a bit and let Crocker-Anglo's specialists go to work full-time? Talk it over with your attorney, and then let's get together soon and explore the benefits of a Crocker-Anglo Family Trust.

For more information, visit our Trust Department in San Rafael, or ask any branch manager to arrange a meeting with one of our trust officers. There will be no obligation on your part.

'OTHELLO' STARS—Paula White as Desdemona and Henri Brown as Othello rehearse at the outdoor amphitheater in Ross for tomorrow's opening of the Marin Shakespeare Festival. The play will continue through Saturday, with "The Taming of the Shrew" starting July 25. The two plays will alternate weekly through August.

Marin Shakespeare Festival Is Opening Its Run Tonight

Twenty-one evenings of Shakespeare will start at 8:15 o'clock tonight with the opening of the third annual Marin Shakespeare Festival, bringing Renaissance Italy, as seen through the eyes of Elizabethan England, to the stage at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Paula White, as the unfortunate Desdemona; Henri Brown, playing the jealous Othello, and A. J. Esta, in the role of the villain, Iago, will star in "Othello" in the first of two productions of the festival in the outdoor amphitheater.

The other play, "The Taming of the Shrew," will start July 25, with Gay Sibley playing Katherina, the shrew, and Dan Whiteside as Petruchio, who tames her.

Each production will play on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, alternating each week through August.

Director for "Othello" is John Brebner, who, with his wife, Ann, founded the festival in 1961. Brebner was once an instructor at the Old Vic Theater, London, where he met his wife, a student at the time.

Mrs. Brebner serves as executive producer.

Dion Chesse, alumnus of the Shakespeare festival at Ashland, Ore., directs "The Taming of the Shrew." He also plays the part of Christopher Sly in the production.

Before each play, Shirley Mordine and three other members of the Welland Lathrop Dance Group will dance Elizabethan dances on the stage.

Sets have been designed by Richard Beck-Meyer, and 17-year-old Catholic High School student John Pasqualetti has designed the costumes for "The Shrew." He was designer of costumes for "Henry V" last year. "Othello" costumes were borrowed from the Alexander Orloff collection.

Leonard Jared is music director for the festival.

Other members of the cast of "Othello" are Ken Bachtold, Robert Atkinson, Dan Caldwell, David Miller, Brian Rowlands, Richard Mason, Ed Fisher, Thomas Leon, Patrick Lane, Bruce Winkworth, Lou Mason, Tim Truett, Patricia Winkworth, Robert Leppo, Susan Steinmetz, Tom Aldis, Joe Bologna, Pat Miller, Henry Thurston, Robert Wishard, John La Boyteaux, Lisa Melone, Jetaun Fisher, Liz Cutter, Susan Knox, Sissy Knox, Carolyn Knox, Stephen Knox and John Dunaway.

Cast for "Taming of the Shrew" includes Dan Breslauer, Miranda Forwood, Edward Charbonneau, Bruce Chesse, Michael Linenthal, Abe Kalish, Al Flower, Derek Beard, Len Schropfer, Franklin Caillat, Jan McCready, Miller, Thurston, Dale Altvater, Tom Miller, Dunaway and Stephen Affleck.

Fishermen Back With One Whale Of A Story

It was really a big one, but it got away.

The B. Phyllis, a 35-foot salmon trawler from San Francisco, pulled into dock at Point Reyes about noon yesterday with the biggest fish story of the year, after almost catching a whale just off Double Point at the south end of Drake's Bay.

Frank Balestreri, part owner of the boat, was taken to a doctor in Point Reyes Station for treatment of a cut on his cheek caused when a broken line lashed back like a whip onto the deck of the boat.

His brother, Joseph Balestreri, told Lloyd Williams of Standard Fisheries at Point Reyes, where the boat docked, that the salmon catch looked as if it were going to be a good one, thanks to lack of a morning wind, until the big mammal broke things up.

The two men had put out their lines when the whale rose up beside the boat. They said "it was a big one," but could give no estimate of its length because they never saw all of it at once.

The whale quickly became tangled in the lines and started to fight for freedom, jerking the boat around. Then it broke free, and broken lines started to snap back.

The men told Williams that almost all gear in the water was lost.

Mrs. Lloyd Williams rushed the injured man to a doctor, while the other brother repaired lines for one more try for salmon.

"Somewhere out there is a mad whale with a lot of hooks in him," Joseph Balestreri told Williams.

Richardson Bay Dredging Is Delayed

Dredging of 18,000 cubic yards of material from Richardson Bay near Harbor Island, east of Strawberry Peninsula, will be delayed because of an objection filed with the Army Corps of Engineers.

The State Lands Commission, which owns the tidal lands in the canal which will be deepened, filed the objection to the project, proposed by Associated Contractors of Palo Alto.

However, Eugene Huggins of the operations division of the Corps of Engineers said the objection was a formality which can be overcome by signing a lease with the state and paying a royalty.

Associated Contractors plans to use the soil to raise the level of land behind dikes on the island in preparation for construction of homes.

Missing Letter Not Information Sought

The City of Novato's mysterious missing letter didn't ask what the California Division of Highways wanted to know, it turned out yesterday.

The city clerk received from J. P. Sinclair, assistant state highway engineer, a copy of his letter of May 21 which mysteriously vanished and was never seen by city councilmen. But accompanying it was another letter from Sinclair, saying: "The information requested in our May 21 letter was not the information that we are seeking."

What the division does want to know, wrote Sinclair, is whether the City of Novato intends to maintain the present Highway 101 as a limited access freeway or return it to a city street with no access restrictions when a bypass highway is built by the state.

The city's decision presumably has bearing on the state's disposal of property it purchased for widening the highway on its present route, and which the rerouting makes surplus.

Inquiries last week at the Division of Highways office in San Francisco by Alfred W. Bowman of Novato brought to light the fact a letter of inquiry regarding the city's official position on Grant School Property—one of the surplus parcels—had been written May 21. No one in city hall could recall seeing it.

The inquiry about the missing letter disclosed that there had been an exchange of correspondence between the Division of Highways and Novato City Planner Robert Lagle without knowledge of city administrator or city council.

Novato Mother Engulfed In Fire

A Novato mother of three became engulfed in flames early today when her nightclothes ignited as she was attempting to put out a fire in a sofa.

Mrs. R. F. Keefer of 289 Alameda De La Loma was awakened at 5:45 a.m. by the smell of smoke. She said she immediately checked on her three children, Connie, 14, Butch 11, and Vicki, 10. Then she called the fire department.

After that, she located the fire in the sofa in the living room. She grabbed a sweater to try to beat it out. The sweater caught fire, setting her nylon nightclothes on fire, the Novato Fire Department reported.

"It was the most terrible feeling suddenly to be all on fire," Mrs. Keefer said.

She rolled on the floor to extinguish the flames.

Her clothes were completely burned from her body when the firemen arrived. They sprayed her with a burn treatment.

Firemen called her husband, S/Sgt. R. E. Keefer, who was on duty with the Second Missile Battalion Station at the Santa Venetia Niki site.

Mrs. Keefer was taken to Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital by her husband, where she was treated for first degree burns on feet, legs, arms and body.

Four Hurt In Two-Car Collision

Four persons were injured at about 12:15 a.m. today in a two-car head-on collision on a curve of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard on White's Hill, the California Highway Patrol reported.

A Mercedes sedan driven eastward by Stephen L. Martin, 18, of Upper Ames Avenue, Ross, collided with a westbound station wagon driven by William S. Irving, 25, Nicasio rancher, said officer Frank Webb.

Martin was cited for driving on the wrong side of the divider line. He was admitted with multiple cuts, scratches and bruises to Marin General Hospital, where his condition today was termed "satisfactory."

Two passengers in Irving's car, his wife Halla Jo Irving, 24, and Frank Witherall, 17, of Sebastopol, were treated for cuts and scratches. Irving was reported injured but not listed in the hospital report.

Baton Rouge Schools Must Desegregate

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The East Baton Rouge Parish school board must begin desegregation of schools this fall.

U.S. Dist. Judge Gordon West approved yesterday the board's reverse stairstep desegregation plan, beginning with the 12th grade, but ordered it to commence this September rather than the fall of 1964 as planned by the board.

Woman Dies After Eating Steak Dinner

A steak dinner in a San Rafael restaurant ended in tragedy Tuesday night, costing Mrs. Marjory Kahn, 61, her life.

Mrs. Kahn and her husband, of 60 Calumet Avenue, San Anselmo, were dining at the Country Club Bowl when Mrs. Kahn suddenly began to cough and choke, her husband told Asst. County Coroner William C. Bradley.

Believing her spasms were associated with recurring fainting spells suffered since an operation two years ago, Kahn immediately drove his wife to Ross General Hospital. When he reached the hospital, she was dead.

An autopsy revealed death was caused by asphixia due to aspiration of food, said Bradley.

Mrs. Kahn had lived in San Anselmo for 8 years. She was a native of Mount Shasta City, Siskiyou County, and a member of the first Baptist Church, San Anselmo.

She is survived by her husband, a produce dealer in San Francisco; two daughters, Mrs. Donna Dean Bauman of San Anselmo and Mrs. Joyce Elaine Emison of Fresno; a sister, Mrs. Agnes Barr of Orland, and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be at the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Inurnment will be private, directed by Chapel of the Hills Mortuary, San Anselmo.

Feed costs make up about 60 per cent of the total cost of producing a dozen eggs.

Larkspur Council Makes Budget Cut

The oversized Larkspur fiscal 1964 budget last night was cut to within about $17,000 of being balanced.

After meeting until past midnight the council set its next budget talks for 8 p.m. Aug. 7.

As the session began, city mgr. Ronald E. Piper reported last Monday night's meeting cut $24,950 from the $460,719 budget.

At the end of the new whittling, Piper said about $21,000 more had been cut. This means a total of about $46,000 has been cut from the budget, which originally had a $63,000 deficit.

The new reductions include adding only one new street department worker instead of two, cutting about $17,500 from $30,000 previously alloted for secondary streets improvement, and cutting $1,500 from $3,000 for city parking planning.

The council voted to grant the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission the full $6,500 it asked.

The park item was halved after planning commission chairman David F. Scott said he saw no chance of getting a park planned this year.

Much time was spent discussing the street department. Piper said it had not hired a new man since July, 1959, and street work has increased considerably with many streets deteriorating. The council alloted $1,000 for temporary street department workers.

Mayor Lesly A. Daveler questioned the need for a new roller at $3,000 and a new dump truck at $2,200 for streets. These were left in the budget after Piper reported the roller essential and said one 1946 truck faces $800 in further extensive repairs if not replaced.

Daveler said he was "bothered" because the street sweeping machine cleans downtown Larkspur daily. He also wondered whether there could be "de-emphasis on street sweeping" so the man operating the machine could be used for road repairs.

Earlier the council discussed restricting parking on Madrone Avenue between Jones Way and Redwood Avenue, effective next Wednesday.

Arthur Tolosko, who said he moved into 320 Madrone three weeks ago, protested restrictions.

After heated words between Tolosko and councilman Vaughn Marker, the council instructed Piper to study the street with the city engineer and make available all possible parking places — possibly as many as seven.

Before the meeting a deputy sheriff served Mayor Daveler with papers for a suit for $500 damages and $247.50 medical costs by Mrs. Jean Miller, charging the city and a contractor were negligent because moss and algae had collected in a gutter at 92 Corte Madera, Greenbrae. She said she slipped there July 15, 1962.

Sausalito Budget Is Adopted

Final 1963-64 budget of $670,000 was adopted last night by Sausalito school district trustees. The figure is $24,086 above last year's budget of $646,086.

Tax rate is expected to be $2.30 per $100 assessed valuation including five cents for bond retirement. An additional nine cents is expected to be levied as "over-ride" tax for special purposes for a total tax rate of $2.39. Last year's tax rate was the same except that the "over-ride" was higher at 14 cents.

Trustees also authorized making application for a loan from the county of $150,000 to carry the district through summer until tax monies are received next fall, Supt. Marcus F. Davis said.

The board approved employment of Cornelius Friesen of Sausalito as bus driver at $386 per month.

The next regular board meeting is Aug. 5.

Little Old N.Y.

ATHENS, Tex. (UPI) — New York is far from the biggest city in the nation. It may be the smallest, if you are talking about New York, Texas. The hamlet of New York, near this northeast Texas city, has a population of about a dozen, give or take a transient or two.

'Wonderful Lady' Returns Missing Baseball Mitt

A "wonderful lady" has returned the missing Homestead Valley baseball mitt.

Mrs. Marjorie Keyer of 597 Ethel Avenue, in a letter to the Independent-Journal today, reported the mitt which her 11-year-old son, Gary, had been accused of taking, was returned to its owner yesterday, thus clearing Gary's name.

Gary, Mrs. Keyer said Tuesday, had been charged with stealing the mitt but she insisted he had not. Her son offered to give a reward of $5 from his savings for the mitt's return. He had saved the money toward a bicycle to replace his which had been stolen.

"Thank you, kind people," wrote Mrs. Keyer. "The baseball mitt was returned to its owner today by a wonderful lady and she didn't even take my son's money for her reward. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts and God bless you all."

Sacramento Port Is Dedicated

SACRAMENTO (AP)—This inland city dedicated its new deep water port today, with Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall as principal speaker.

Two Navy destroyers, a Coast Guard vessel, the state merchant marine training ship, and a tuna clipper were on hand for a three-day celebration.

The ships reached Sacramento through a 43-mile dredged channel from an arm of San Francisco Bay. The straight channel runs slightly west of the curvy Sacramento River.

The first swimming school in this country opened at Boston on July 23, 1827.

Marin Major Gets Boost In Education

Maj. Solomon J. Jamerson, 36, of 843 Del Ganada Road, Terra Linda, has been selected by the Department of the Army to attend the University of San Francisco this fall under the military educational program "Operation Bootstrap."

Jamerson is a staff officer with Headquarters, Sixth Region Army Air Defense Command at Fort Baker.

His selection culminates 14 years of off-duty college studies, leading to the bachelor of arts degree. He entered the Army in 1947 after graduating from Compton Junior College with a degree in associate of arts.

The major has served in a variety of fields during his military career. He holds the Silver Star and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

He and his wife, Vivian, have a son, Victor, 9.

Auditorium Need Study Is Planned

What exactly are Marin County's needs for a big civic auditorium-convention hall?

The board of supervisors wants to know, and the county's Civic Center committee yesterday asked representatives of veterans' organizations, chambers of commerce and theater groups to supply some answers.

County administrator Alan Bruce, chairman of the committee, told a meeting of groups interested in the long-discussed auditorium that he does not want to take any "half-baked information to the board."

The committee requested further information from veterans and other groups as to what sort of building they want, how often it would be used, the number of people expected to attend events, etc.

Architect Aaron Green said he would prepare a sketch of a possible floor plan for the auditorium and related facilities. The committee discussed a main auditorium that would seat 2,500 persons, another smaller convention room for 600, and six to 10 display rooms with movable partitions.

Cost of such a building would "easily exceed three million dollars," Green said.

Teachers Form AFL-CIO Unit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Examiner said today the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, has formed a new chapter on the campus of the University of California at Berkeley.

The Examiner reported:

The unit was created to fight for the maintenance of a strong Academic Senate on local campuses rather than allowing a proposed 24-member statewide academic council "to pre-empt" local viewpoints on many matters.

A chapter is planned for UCLA.

Grass Fire Burns Over Five Acres

A grass fire in the Marin Estates tract of Corte Madera burned over five acres yesterday afternoon.

The alarm was sounded at 1:30 p.m., said Fire Chief Frank Nelson. Seven volunteer firemen and five street department workers put out the fire and stayed on the scene until 3:30 p.m. to make sure no smouldering remained.

Nelson believed the fire may have started from children playing with matches. He said no homes were endangered.

Labor Backs McNally For Supervisor Post

The Marin County Labor Council last night unanimously endorsed Omar McNally, retired business agent of Machinists Union local 238, for the vacancy on the Marin County Board of Supervisors created by death of Walter R. Castro Tuesday.

The action for McNally, who lives at 1407 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, followed similar endorsement Tuesday by the Marin County Building Trades Council.

Firecrackers Draw Complaints

A belated Fourth of July celebration in the Oak Manor area west of Fairfax brought several complaints to the sheriff's office yesterday.

Residents of Oak Manor Drive complained that firecrackers began popping about noon yesterday and continued intermittently into the night.

At 9:50 p.m. Pauline E. Horst of 327 Oak Manor Drive reported someone threw a firecracker on the sundeck of her home. Deputy Sheriff Raymond von Savoye checked the area, but the culprits had vanished.

Feather River To Be Diverted

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Workmen start diverting the Feather River today so the foundation of Oroville Dam can be laid, Water Resources Director William E. Warne announced.

The river will be diverted only slightly to the right, and later to the left, by a coffer dam. In November it will be shifted into a diversion tunnel now nearing completion.

Takes Temperature

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Westinghouse research engineers have devised a new kind of thermometer for taking the ocean's temperature. The job is done with ultrasonics—sound waves too high in frequency to be audible to the human ear.

Courts Adjourned In Castro Memory

All three divisions of Marin Municipal Court were adjourned today in memory of County Supervisor Walter R. Castro, who died of a heart attack Tuesday.

Harold J. Haley, presiding judge, adjourned the municipal courts. Similar action was taken yesterday by Marin Superior Court.

A 30-minute memorial program for Castro is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow on radio station KTIM. Station manager Hugh Turner said personal musical favorites of the late supervisor will be played.

Funeral services for Castro at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo will be conducted by Rev. Wesley C. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael.

County supervisors, judges, and other county officials will be honorary pallbearers. An honor guard of 30 sheriff's deputies will escort the funeral procession. Pallbearers will be members of the sheriff's department, the county fire department, and the San Rafael Fire Department, which Castro once headed as chief.

Following the church service, a Masonic service will be conducted at Mount Tamalpais Mausoleum, San Rafael, by Marin Lodge 191, Free and Accepted Masons.

Cardiac Telemetry Station Opens

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The first cardiac telemetry station on the West Coast and one of the first in the world was opened at St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday.

The station uses new "dynamic electrocardiographic" equipment which is available at only five institutions in the world, including Cape Canaveral and the World Health Organization in Switzerland.

The new equipment makes it possible to obtain by tape recording complete uninterrupted records of heart actions of active patients, continuously over long periods of time and without supervision.

Such information has previously been unobtainable.

Chicago Clash On Civil Rights

CHICAGO (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators protesting what they call de facto segregation of Chicago's public schools clashed with police yesterday at the Board of Education building.

Three demonstrators, who broke through a shoulder-to-shoulder line of policemen in an attempt to re-enter the building to continue a sit-in, were arrested.

Police barred the way at the request of a Board of Education official, who later agreed to let some of the demonstrators back inside.

3 Russ Jews Jailed For Baking Matzoh

MOSCOW (UPI)—Three Jews have been given prison sentences by a Moscow peoples court for illegal dealings in the baking of matzoh, the unleavened bread which is part of the eight-day Passover commemoration each spring, it was learned yesterday.

They were Golko Bogomolny, who is serving one year, and Klavdiaya Bliakhman and Malka Brio, each serving six months. The offenses preceded this year's Passover celebrations, the report said.

Residents Give Approval To Novato Swim Pool Plan

General approval of plans for the Novato community $100,000 swimming pool was voiced last night by about 35 persons who attended a pool meeting in the community house.

Richard Banwell and James Coke, of the architectural firm of Rockwell and Banwell, presented the first plans for an 85-by-75 foot L-shaped pool. It will have 75-foot racing lanes which are three feet six inches to five feet deep. The corner for diving will be 11 feet six inches at its deepest part.

The plan calls for the diving boards to be facing north so that the sun will not blind the divers. Bleachers along the racing lanes will face east so that spectators at the swimming meets will have the sun at their backs, Banwell explained.

Included as alternates are a wading and splash pool for small children.

The pool will be built on the Novato High School campus.

Mill Valley Employee Retirement Discussed

Feasibility of compulsory retirement of all Mill Valley city employees at age 65 was discussed last night by the Mill Valley city council sitting as a retirement board. City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants was requested to investigate.

Retirement ages now are between 55 and 65 for fire and policemen—55 being a possible retirement age and 65 being mandatory. All other employees being required to retire at 70.

Thomas T. Behnke, finance director reported employees' contribution of $49,663 to the city's previous retirement plan with Occidental Life Insurance Co. has been refunded and he is looking into ways of investing the money in either a bank or investment firm. The city's contribution to Occidental has not yet been refunded.

The council authorized payment of $3,392 in death benefits to the beneficiary of Elizabeth Kelly, senior library assistant, who died July 7.

The council adopted a resolution to annex Scott Valley Units 2, 3 and 4; heard first reading of an ordinance annexing Scott (36 acres of property zoned for single family) and adopted a resolution initiating Scott 3 annexation proceedings, this area being 5.86 acres on Corte Madera ridge above the Alto Bowl to be used as a recreation area. George R. Goheen said his firm, Marin Capital Co., would go on record agreeing that zoning of the acreage be open area.

The council took action on seven requests to review the city septic tank discontinuance order which states that, effective July 20, persons owning septic tanks on property where the closest sewer is within 400 feet must hook up to city sewers.

The Mill Valley City Council also:

1. Welcomed about 20 students of Tamalpais High School summer government class, "Problems in American Democracy."
2. Approved lot splits by R. D. Keller of 160 Corte Madera Avenue and Lester B. Brown at 410 Magee Avenue.
3. Adopted an ordinance amendment which requires a minimum of 1,500 square feet of land per apartment unit in Lytton Square and 2,500 square feet elsewhere in the city.
4. Awarded Richardson and Von Resfeld contract to rebuild the La Goma Avenue Bridge at a low bid of $2,465, money to come from flood control fund.
5. Approved spending $2,500 for repairs of the Summit Avenue Bridge, money to come from the neighborhood street fund.
6. Heard from Almcrants that Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) has asked if Mill Valley might wish the state of California to incorporate East Blithedale Avenue and Camino Alto into the state highway system, and asked Almcrants to get more details.
7. Heard from Councilman George D. Monardo that the council is investigating the possibility of getting an annual salary survey made at $500 per year to eliminate inequities in employees' pay. Councilman George Blackwell said he thinks that the building inspector and head of public works should get the same salary.
8. Approved final map of Battle Ridge Unit 1 subdivision at Enchanted Knolls.
9. Authorized amendments to ordinances approving agreements with Kay Park sewer maintenance district, Alto and Almonte sanitary districts.
10. Introduced amendment to the taxicab ordinance setting a $4 per hour waiting rate for cabs.
11. Designated Monardo and Almcrants to work out a new contract proposal for Western Greyhound Lines to increase its franchise from $68 per month to a possible $180.
12. Approved $53,601 in warrants.
13. Adjourned meeting in memory of Elizabeth Kelly, late senior library assistant.

Take A Breather

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—The Texas Highway Department says it will not be long before a traveler in the state will have to go only 37 miles between roadside parks. The state's plans for its interstate highway system include enough safety rest areas for one each 37 miles, or about each 40 minutes of driving.

Pruning Of Trees A Cutting Question

"If I have a tree in front of my property growing on city property, do I have to prune it?"

Councilman Michael Wornum asked fellow Mill Valley city councilmen this last night.

"Yes," said City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants, "if it cuts the view or jeopardizes something in the area."

"It doesn't sound fair to me," said Wornum. "There are eight enormus eucalyptus trees where I live and it would cost from $2,000 to $3,000 to prune them."

Park Supt. Joe Penders said the city holds residents responsible for such trees. "It is a minor cost to the property owner but would run to many thousand dollars for the city," he said.

"If someone thinks the tree is a nuisance, can he chop it down?" Wornum queried.

"You pick him up and take him to court if he does," said Almcrants.

"If you make this change," said councilman George Blackwell, "the cost (to the city) would be enormous."

"I have enormous trees around me," countered Wornum.

The council, going over a proposed new tree ordinance decided to have Wornum look into it further.

New Planner Is Appointed In Mill Valley

Edward J. Boessnecker was appointed last night to the Mill Valley planning commission by the city council, to fill the vacancy left by Frank W. Lamb, former chairman, who quit his post June 15 over the city's conflict of interest policy.

Boessnecker's term will run to Dec. 19 of this year.

Boessnecker is a law partner in the San Francisco firm of Behr, Boessnecker, Colangelo and Imlay. He was president of the Mill Valley Commuters Club during 1960 and 1961 and was appointed by the county board of supervisors in 1962 to help investigate traffic conditions on the Golden Gate Bridge. He is an instructor at University of San Francisco law school.

Boessnecker and his wife, Joan, and six children live at 5 Hollyhock Court.

Blue Licks Museum

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — A new museum has been dedicated at Blue Licks Battlefield State Park in Northern Kentucky. It depicts the history of the Blue Licks area from the time its saline waters attracted the now-extinct mastodon until the mid-1800s, when Blue Licks became a famed resort area.

Councilmen In Tiff Over Eliminating Mill Valley Job

"Chopping off" the position of assistant building inspector caused a stir between the Mill Valley's two British-born city councilmen last night.

Michael Wornum said "chop it off." George Blackwell said, "Why pick on the building inspector? Why not try the police department?"

"When you try to cut someone out o fan organization it's like trying to pull a hair out of a porcupine. We have a nine-page memo, of heart-rending prose, on why he should remain. I would like to get a feeling of working together on this," said Wornum.

"We have got to economize. We're trying to fight this growth of bureaucracy. Instead of finding 5,000 reasons why we can not remove him, why not itemize a few reasons why we should?"

City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants spoke against eliminating the job. He said if this is done, the planning aide is forced to do some of the work and then the council would be faced with employing more people in the planning department.

"It's apparent to me that the building inspector is not only the building inspector but also the zoning administrator," said Blackwell.

"If you hand out titles you will have another problem," said Almcrants.

Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks asked for time for more consideration and the subject was continued.

Since Preston L. Canfield's death in April, Ronald Glander, assistant building inspector, has been acting building inspector. He took an examination Saturday with 15 other men for the post of building inspector.

Apprentices At New Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California is training a record number of apprentices in industry but it is not enough, Ernest B. Webb, director of the State Department of Industrial Relations, said today.

Webb said 11,139 new apprentices were registered by the Division of Apprenticeship Standards in the fiscal year ended July 1, a gain of 2,600 over the average of the two previous fiscal years.

Webb said the state sponsored training program showed a significant year-to-year increase but, "If we are to meet the needs of the record number of youth entering the labor market each year, we must do more. This is especially true of minority youth."

India contains 1,259,995 square miles.

X-15 DELIBERATELY CRIPPLED IN AIR

A. F. Pilot Tests Stability While Rocketing 5 Times Speed Of Sound

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—Air Force Maj. Bob Rushworth deliberately crippled the X-15 at more than five times the speed of sound today by shutting off all of its automatic stability controls.

The purpose of the test was to determine the "natural stability" of the X-15—without electronic instruments — and how well Rushworth could fly the rocket ship manually under such a handicap.

The simulated control system breakdown caused the X-15 to lapse into yawing—side-to-side motion—but the Air Force test pilot was able to maintain his course.

The flight marked the first time the X-15 had undergone such a test without its lower tail fin. Space scientists have removed the fin in hopes of gaining more stability for the ship at supersonic speed.

Rushworth switched off the controls immediately after "burnout" of his 57,000-pound thrust engine on the way up to a peak altitude of 20 miles. He left the system off for the remainder of his flight back to this test center.

His altitude was listed officially at 103,000 feet and his speed at 3,818 miles an hour.

It was the 89th flight of the X-15.

Tomorrow, chief space agency pilot Joe Walker will attempt to set a new world aircraft altitude record of some 60 miles in the X-15. The present record of 59.6 miles high was set in the X-15 last year by Air Force Maj. Bob White, who now is flying fighter planes.

Officials Debate Tax On Radio Panel Show

"Marin residents are going to wonder why this year's county taxes, deriving from the new proposed budget, are higher than ever before," said Marin County Supervisor Peter Behr.

And Behr, only dissenter among county supervisors to the 1963-64 budget, with tax rate estimated at $2.52 per $100 assessed valuation, was answered by Donald R. Frost, county director of public works: "The value received will more than justify the expense."

Behr and Frost, with county administrator Alan Bruce and auditor-controller Michael Mitchell discussed the proposed county budget on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" today.

A county budget, said Behr, is different from a family or business budget. "It is put together with no upper or lower limit on what should be spent. We must decide what is really necessary and what is only desirable."

Frost responded that he was in an "operating department with constant needs," if the county "doesn't start widening the important roads now, soon the population explosion will pass us, leaving only traffic jams."

"It is very clear," added Bruce, "that the county budget is going to be inevitably and inexorably up from last year. The average taxpayer in Novato will pay about $99.11, as opposed to $72.41 last year because of increased valuation.

"County budgets have been quite conservative for the last few years. In my personal opinion, the increase may be due, in part, to past county conservatism."

Mitchell noted "a good possibility exists of further reduction during final tax hearings Aug. 12."

The preliminary budget of 17 million dollars may result in the highest tax rate in Marin history the four agreed.

"We have passed, in my judgement, what was a reasonable tax increase this year," said Behr. "The question is how much."

"I can't agree with Mr. Behr that you have to work against a given limit," said Frost. "We can't be content with a limit. This is a dynamic area and we have to be concerned with going ahead."

The program will be rebroadcast from a recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Sausalito Planners Approve

Sausalito planning commissioners last night approved a use permit for Charles H. and Virginia C. Merrill to convert a storage-stable at 116 Caledonia Street into a woodcarving studio. The Merrills live at 694 Sausalito Boulevard.

Also approved was a use permit for Kenneth H. Norberg of Tiburon to use a building in Marinship for body and fender repair and to construct a new storage building. The property is west of Service Lumber Co.

Don and Marlene Bailey received a use permit to set up a boat repair business, including hoisting equipment for small pleasure boats, at Pier 2 in Marinship on Arques property.

The commission recommended city council approval of a subdivision sought by John G. Hoffman to redivide four lots into eight halfway up the unimproved portion of Sausalito Boulevard.

The commission extended use permit applications for one year to both Marinship Enterprises and Bay Counties Finance Co., the firm building a supermarket in Marinship.

Stricken Physician Released

Dr. Ronald B. MacKenzie of Sausalito, who was stricken with "black typhus" while doing research on the disease in Bolivia, has been discharged from the Gorgas Hospital in the Panama Canal Zone, the Associated Press reported today.

Dr. MacKenzie is credited with isolating the virus for the rare disease. He left a Marin County practice in 1960 to do research in Central and South America.

Two other doctors, Karl Johnson of Camden, N. J., and Angel Munoz of Panama, are still being treated for the disease, which is also known as "bleeding fever."

The disease claimed 300 lives in the Bolivian town of San Joaquin, and is fatal to about 50 per cent of those who contract it.

The three doctors were flown to Panama last week for treatment.

It teaches Judo as well as ballet dancing.

Self-Appointed Literary Critic Stays Out Of Marin—So Far

A self-appointed literary critic for the federal government, who has drawn up a list of magazines "acceptable" for sale in government buildings, is reportedly planning to carry his campaign to every Parent-Teacher Association in Northern California.

However, he apparently has not yet contacted P-TA officials in Marin County. Several presidents and past presidents of P-TA councils in Marin said today they hadn't heard a peep yet from Alfred R. Lynch, 45, elementary school teacher in Pacifica, who identifies himself as "Northern California chairman for Citizens for Decent Literature."

Lynch has compiled a list of 109 magazines that are "acceptable" for sale at federal buildings in three western states. He sent the list to the General Services Administration.

The "approved" list includes only about 20 per cent of the popular magazines in the United States and excludes such magazines as:

Art News, Barron's Weekly, Camera, Catholic Digest, Down Beat, Forbes, Fortune, Nation, National Review, New Republic, The Reporter, Ring, Road and Track, Saturday Review, Scientific American, Stamps, and Theater Arts.

Lynch claims he has a "wonderful new film called 'The Pages of Death' which brings the message of filthy literature home like nothing else."

"This fall, we hope to show it to every P-TA in northern California," he was quoted as saying.

"I haven't heard a thing yet from him," said Mrs. Bryce W. Anderson, president of the San Rafael Council of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Roy Kanoff, immediate past president of the North Marin Council, also reported she has heard nothing from Lynch or about the film. "All I know is what has appeared in the papers."

She said she cannot speak for the P-TA council, but "I'd think we'd be cautious on a thing like this."

Mrs. Robert Muruhy, past president of the Mill Valley Council, reported she has heard nothing from Lynch or his organization.

Lynch claims his Northern California Citizens for Decent Literature has 500 members in San Francisco alone, and chapters in Marin County, San Mateo, Redwood City and Sacramento.

Asked to name persons involved in the movement locally, Lynch replied that Joseph Murray of San Francisco is attorney. But no other names were given.

The central office of the General Services Administration in Washington said nothing would be done about the restricted list of magazines until next week when Bernard L. Boutin, chief of GSA, returns to his Washington desk from a trip to the Orient.

Rattigan Proposes Oil Producer Tax

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Sen. Joseph Rattigan (D-Santa Rosa) today introduced a bill to raise 20 million dollars a year by taxing oil producers.

His measure, similar to one defeated in 1959, would levy a 2 per cent tax on the companies privilege of taking, or severing, oil from underground. It's called a "severance tax."

All Lanes Of Drake Near Bon Air Opened

All lanes of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near Bon Air Road are open again, Deputy County Public Works Director Arthur Knutson said today.

The outer southbound lane had been closed more than a month after part of the right-of-way caved in during construction of a new medical center near the intersection.

The first nursing bottle was patented in 1841.

SAVE YOUR EYES — Hundreds of cases of permanent eye damage were reported during the last eclipse of the sun, and the Marin County Optometric Society has issued a warning not to look directly at the sun during the eclipse Saturday. One Safe way to view the sun, which will be about one-third covered by the moon, is through a pinhole projector (above). The children (right) looking directly at the sun for even a few seconds through dark glasses or exposed photographic negatives, can suffer retina burns.

Telescope To Be Set Up To View Eclipse

Two directors of the Marin Astronomical Society will set up the club's eight-inch telescope on Project 17 in Mill Valley Saturday to permit the public to safely view the partial eclipse of the sun.

John L. Weaver and Jerome C. Hauke, both Mill Valleyans, will be at the recreation site from 12:30 to 3 p.m. and will give explanations of the eclipse, Hauke said.

Eclipses, either partial, total or annular, occur as many as five times a year somewhere around the earth, Hauke commented. "We get about 50 total eclipses a century from some place on the earth," he added.

He stressed that there is no safe way to look directly at the sun for most people, and that severe eyesight damage, even blindness, may occur from staring directly at the sun.

Five society members will travel to northern Canada to see the eclipse, which will last about 90 seconds there. They are Mr. and Mrs. William N. Breeze of Mill Valley; O. Richard Norton of Novato, and Dr. Joel Goodman, former Mill Valley resident now living in San Francisco. Breeze is club president.

The society meets the last Thursday of each month at a member's home and has public star parties once a month in summer and fall at Rock Springs on Mount Tamalpais.

Manor School Open House Set

Open house will be held at Manor School in Fairfax from 7:30 to 9 p.m. today signaling the end of the summer session.

Pupils will present a program consisting of Spanish skits and songs, tumbling, folk dancing and selections by orchestra and chorus, Kenneth Lucas, summer school principal, reported.

Approximately 370 have attended the session which started June 19. The children will pick up their report cards Friday.

Three Forged Checks Reported In County

Three forged checks, totaling $500.08, were reported to San Rafael police Tuesday by David C. Walker of the Di-Wall Co., 61 Jordan Street, San Rafael, who said the checks were discovered by a secretary.

Walter said the checks were made payable to Fred Forehand of San Rafael, a truck driver who worked for the company on June 28, the date written on the checks.

Herter In Bonn For Trade Talks

BONN (UPI) — Christian A. Herter, President John F. Kennedy's chief foreign-trade negotiator, arrived in Bonn today as the West German government began talks with industrialists on increasing trade with both the free and Communist worlds.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met for three hours this morning with about 20 industrial leaders to discuss chances of increasing trade with the Soviet bloc.

At Adenauer's express instruction, reporters were forbidden to enter the chancellory grounds after the meeting to speak to any of the participants, all of whom he also pledged to silence.

As the meeting got underway, Herter arrived by plane from Brussels on the third leg of a European trip to discuss lowering European tariff barriers to American goods.

Herter landed at nearby Wahn Airfield shortly after noon and proceeded immediately to a working lunch with Ambassador George McGhee. Later he was meeting Adenauer and Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard.

Little Theater In Need Of Manpower

Sausalito Little Theater has a good playhouse and money in the bank but not enough manpower, Don Deane, president, said today. He is asking for talent reserves through a mailing piece sent to all Sausalito residents.

Workshops will be held from 8 to 10 p.m., July 23, 30 and Aug. 6, 13 and 20, Deane said. "There are openings in all fields of theater work," he added.

The meeting will be conducted by members of the Mill Valley Junior Chamber at 7:30 p.m., July 30 at the Corte Madera Bank of America.

Junior Chamber members will explain the purposes, benefits and activities of the organization, and membership requirements.

Augmented Roman Alphabet Is Topic

Dr. John Downing, director of the University of London Reading Research Unit, will be guest speaker of the DeWitt Reading Clinic in San Rafael July 25, 8 p.m. in Room 14 of Guzman Hall at Dominican College.

He will present a film and lecture on recent research and experiments concerning the use of the augmented Roman alphabet. It is a new phonetic system, using one letter for every sound, now being taught in some English schools and remedial reading centers.

Assembly Rejects Bonds Measure

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly yesterday rejected a proposed constitutional amendment that would have lowered the voter requirement for passage of local school bonds from two thirds to 60 per cent.

The measure by Assemblyman Alfred Song (D-Monterey Park) was similar to one that cleared that Assembly in the general session but died in the Senate.

It received 47 aye votes and 26 noes with two-thirds majority or 54 votes needed for passage.

Finance Committee Strips State Aid To Schools Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state is ready to vote on a bill to boost state aid to public schools by 100 million dollars over the next two years, but without three other provisions of a measure defeated at the end of the general session.

The Finance Committee sent the stripped-down measure by Sen. Joseph A. Rattigan (D-Santa Rosa) to the floor yesterday.

It does not include these features of the general session bill:

A minimum school property tax to raise an estimated 27.5 million dollars a year starting in 1964. Gov. Edmund G. Brown has said he won't approve increased state aid without this feature.

A revised apportionment formula basing state aid on the number of teachers and their salaries, rather than on the number of pupils.

A lowering of state aid to districts with federal grants because defense installations swell the enrollment.

All but the formula revision have also been cut from the bill in the Assembly.

Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton Jr. (D-Merced) said he would wait until the Senate acts on the Rattigan bill before moving to restore the other features.

PT&T Employees Give To Radio Free Europe

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. technicians from Marin County donated $100 to Radio Free Europe yesterday, the first group of its kind to make such a contribution.

Radio Free Europe was selected after the group decided to do something about freedom of communication, reported Fred C. Koch of San Rafael.

"This gave telephone communications men the opportunity to contribute to a worthy cause in line with their work," he said.

Robert L. Smith, a representative of Radio Free Europe, accepted the contribution in Oakland. "One hundred dollars will buy 100 minutes of air time," he said.

Contributions came from central office equipment men who maintain automatic switching systems.

Koch, a central office equipment man, and Robert Weiss set up the collection.

Workman's Own Way To Count

GREENVILLE, Ky. (AP)—While Paul Camplin was watching a railroad track crew repair a spur line, the foreman summoned one of his men. He wanted a report on how many ties had been put down.

The worker couldn't count beyond five, but the foreman felt he could trust the man's ability to improvise.

The worker came back and reported: "We've put down five ties. And anotherin and anotherin and anotherin and anotherin."

The foreman came up with the correct number: eight.

3 Members Of Vacationing Family Killed In Auto Crash

FRESNO (AP)—Three persons were killed and 15 injured last night in the headon collision of a car and station wagon carrying people from Texas to and from Yosemite National Park.

All three dead were in the station wagon which carried 14 persons, nine of them children, the Highway Patrol said. The crash occurred on Highway 41 about 10 miles north of Fresno.

Patrolmen identified the dead as:

Mrs. H. P. Lilly, 55, Abilene, Tex.; her daughter, Mrs. Yvonne Foster, 30, of Lemoore, Calif., and Mrs. Foster's year-old daughter, Janice.

Patrolmen said Mrs. Susie Wood, 32, Abilene, was driving the station wagon. They said she and her husband, Glenn, were among the 11 persons injured in the station wagon. H. P. Lilly, 59, husband of the dead woman, was also a passenger. All the other station wagon passengers were children.

They included Roger, 9, Karen Lee, 10, and Kathy Sue, 11, children of the Woods, two other Lilly children, Donna, 15, and Brenda, 10; and three Foster children, David, 7, Ginger Lee, 5, and Alice Ann, 4.

The passengers in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Olin Kemp of Goldthwaite, Texas, and their two children, Ann, 18, and Billy, 17. Kemp suffered a broken pelvis and his wife cuts and a fractured jaw. Their children suffered cuts and abrasions.

The injured were taken to hospitals in Fresno and Madera.

Patrolmen said the station wagon was traveling south towards Yosemite.

Patrol officers said the station wagon apparently was trying to pass another vehicle when it met the Kemp car headon.

Night Watchman Injured In Fall

He was treated for an extensive cut on his right wrist.

Budget On Public Works Is Defended

A spirited defense of a $500,000 increase in the proposed 1963-64 county public works budget was offered to the board of supervisors yesterday.

City residents in Marin use county roads, and those roads need repairs, Donald R. Frost, county director of public works, said in a letter requested by the board.

The biggest increase in his budget, Frost said, goes to repair the county's "primary roads," the "connecting links between the centers of population and between residential and commercial areas."

The Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen last month criticized the $546,570 budget hike. In the past the council has strongly objected to any form of overall road tax "because of its inequity to those taxpayers residing in the incorporated areas."

Frost said his department hopes to spend $552,900 repairing primary roads compared to the $236,100 it spent in the 1962-63 year. Construction is planned on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Pedro Road, Miller Avenue, Panoramic Highway, Paradise Drive, Almonte Boulevard, Lucas Valley Road and Novato Boulevard.

Frost estimated $147,000 is necessary to replace two "overaged" bridges, one on Lagunitas Drive and one on the Valley Ford-Franklin School Road, which he said would mean a three- or five-mile detour if closed. Closing the Lagunitas Drive bridge would "leave a community without any means of public road access," he said.

A sum of $42,000 is allocated to correct a "major slide on White's Hill," Frost said.

A letter to supervisors Tuesday from Charles F. Pendleton of Corte Madera, chairman of the mayors' council, asked the board to take no final action on the proposed 18-cent overall county road tax until the council has completed a review. Supervisors said they will discuss the preliminary road budget Aug. 12.

"Everything he (Frost) has in his budget is desirable," said supervisor Peter Behr, "but we have the problem of deciding on a reasonable tax rate. The amount of the increase is not justified. The critical problems should be phased over two or three years."

Frost told supervisors the projects submitted are of "utmost urgency." If approved, the budget would be $1,941,570 compared to $1,395,000 for the 1962-63 year.

The budget allocates $66,000 to widen Miller Avenue adjacent to Tamalpais High School.

The board heard a letter from Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, asking for a new dump site in Southern Marin.

"You don't know what a stink a proposed dump site can cause," acting chairman William D. Fusselman told Behr. "I propose you confer with Dr. Albrecht. She should be told the Smith Brothers dump on the Sonoma County line is available."

The board of supervisors also:

1. Learned that the State Division of Highways will hold a hearing at 10:45 a.m. Monday in Sacramento on proposed widening of the San Francisco approach to the Golden Gate Bridge. The board will write the division supporting the widening.
2. Accepted as a county road Seminary Drive at the Golden Gate Baptist Seminary on Strawberry Point.
3. Learned that putting a sidewalk on the south side of Tiburon Boulevard from Belvedere to Tiburon Glen would cost $90,000 compared to $250,000 for a sidewalk on the north side and agreed to put aside further consideration of the project.
4. Approved $87,400 to begin road improvements on the Point Reyes-Petaluma Road, Tomales-Petaluma Boulevard, San Pedro Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in the San Quentin Prison area.
5. Granted two weeks military leave to Enrique Melendez, County junior civil engineer.
6. Approved overtime pay this and next month for building inspectors to catch up on an overload of work.
7. Held over a meeting at 9 a.m. Monday approval of plans and specifications for the Santa Venetia pumping station to be constructed in Flood Control Zone No. 7 and until Aug. 6 a zoning adjustment requested by Joseph Bonomolo.
8. Granted a number of zoning adjustments, including a 13½-foot front setback (25 feet required) to James A. Mayer in Portola Estates because of a steep hill at the back of his lot and changes from limited agriculture to one-family residential zoning in the Bella Vista, Park Hill and Keith subdivisions.
9. Agreed to notify Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley they do not approve any county-wide schools tax in proposed school financing bills.
10. Upheld planning commission denial of two detached directional signs off-site of the Pleasant Valley subdivision on the former Sanchez ranch in Novato.

They are Eagle Scout Jay Egger, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Egger, 340 Bretano Way, Greenbrae; Life Scout Gary Fay, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fay, 208 Ricardo Road, Mill Valley, and Life Scout David Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mills, 154 South Ridgewood Road, Kentfield.

On their way to the Jamboree, held on the site of the Battle of Marathon of 490 B.C., the boys will attend a pre-Jamboree training camp at Fort Slocum, N.Y., and will tour Europe.

Blind Teacher Will Get New Guide Dog

Fletcher Hicks of San Francisco, former blind English teacher at San Rafael High School, will be one of 11 persons graduating from Guide Dogs for the Blind of San Rafael Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

Hicks resigned his teaching post in January after blasting the evaluation system used by Principal Alfred N. Thompson.

His old dog, Sparkle, is being "retired" after becoming too old. His new dog, Bart, is also a German shepherd.

There is a list of 160 persons who want "retired" guide dogs for pets, according to a spokesman for the school.

Rev. Bliss Bellinger, pastor of the Faith Lutheran Church in San Rafael, will be guest speaker at the graduation ceremonies to be held at the school on Los Ranchitos Road.

The class of 11 is unique in that it contains five teenagers, largest number to be graduated from the school in one class.

The graduates are: Luther Hayes of Urania, La.; Gerry Mailloux of Vancouver, B.C.; Kenneth Metz of Panorama City, Los Angeles County; Russell Redenbaugh of Salt Lake City, Utah; Carolyn Reece of Santa Rosa; Marilyn Riley of Pocatello, Ida.; Kenneth Stevens of Stockton; Charles Tyree of Coeur d'Alene, Ida.; George Wood of Houston, Tex., and Hicks.

Little Old Dog Lost In County

A "li'l old lady," 11 years old, named Dixie Duchess today was reported missing since Friday by Mrs. Maxine Cantrell of 15 Heartwood Court, San Rafael.

Dixie is a Chihuahua dog, pet of Mrs. Cantrell's daughter, Evalee, 17, since childhood. A reward is offered by the Cantrell's for the dog's return.

The dog was not wearing tags because she was given a bath the night before her disappearance.

Marin City Child Center Gets Toys

A fleet of wheel toys and a large portable aluminum gymnasium set have been purchased by the Marin City Child Care Center as a result of a $200 contribution to the center from the Sausalito Salvage Shop.

The shop at 19 Princess Street sells used clothing and household articles and donates the funds raised to local organizations needing assistance, according to Mrs. Sherwood Armstrong, chairman.

Giants May Find Themselves In Eighth Place Soon

Lowly Mets Hand S.F. Another Sad Setback

NEW YORK (AP)—Nothing seems to work for San Francisco Manager Alvin Dark these days. Not even a catcher in right field.

Unless something starts to function soon, the defending National League champions may find themselves in eighth place, an unfamiliar territory from which they are but 3½ games removed.

The lowly New York Mets administered the damage last night, stopping the Giants 9-7 in 11 innings after tying the game in the last of the ninth.

Jim Duffalo, 2-0, tries to bring the Giants only their third victory in 11 games when he battles Larry Bearnarth, 2-3, tonight in the series closer.

Wednesday's catcher in right field was Tom Haller, inserted there to add power to the non-hitting Giants' lineup.

Tom didn't make any miscues in the strange locale — but neither did he fulfill his mission of getting a hit or two.

Nor did Dark's selection of Don Larsen to pitch the 11th inning produce results. For Don promptly gave up a single to Joe Christopher and a home run to Joe Hicks that won the game for New York.

Then there was the sacrifice Dark ordered pitcher Jack Fisher to execute in the eighth inning. The strategy was the soundest—but Fisher executed baserunner Chuck Hiller instead of the bunt.

The resultant force play, on the heels of five straight no-out singles that had given the Giants a 7-6 lead, killed the rally.

The Mets tied the game in the ninth on Duke Snider's single and Frank Thomas' double off Fisher.

Still, for the Giants, there at least is Willie McCovey.

He singled home a run in the first inning, extending his hitting streak to 22 games, and he homered in the fifth, his 29th of the campaign.

The 22-game string tied his own San Francisco record and left him two games short of the all-time Giants' mark.

The home run, his 11th in July, put him within five of the National League record for a single month—and he has 14 days to go.

The loss dropped the fourth-place Giants eight games behind league-leading Los Angeles and 1½ behind Chicago and St. Louis. They're only a game ahead of Cincinnati, two up on Pittsburgh and Milwaukee and 3½ ahead of Philadelphia.

Dark Sees Red, Tears Into Team

NEW YORK (UPI)—Publicly, Alvin Dark claims the Giants ain't dead, but privately—and angrily—he has informed his players they'd better show more life or else.

"Great game!" Dark snapped sarcastically last night after the Giants suffered their eighth defeat in the last 10 games by bowing to the Mets, 9-7, in 11 innings, but that's not what he said to his players behind closed doors.

The ordinarily soft-spoken San Francisco manager was reading them out not only good but loud, too, with such pointed suggestions as "get the dead lead out of your pants" when he was momentarily interrupted by a writer who prudently tip-toed out of the dressing room.

Dark, seeing red by this time, continued his harangue and most of the Giant players were so throttled by his blast that they sat like stone statues in front of their lockers for almost half an hour after the game.

"I don't blame him for being mad," sympathized Casey Stengel in the Mets' headquarters. "They had the game won and they let it get away from them."

For the record, Dark still keeps insisting the Giants can win even though they're eight games behind the first place Dodgers.

OWENS CRASH: CHILD KILLED, THREE HURT

JOES, Colo. (UPI)—R. C. Owens, a flanker back from the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League, was injured and his four-year-old daughter was killed last night in a one-car accident just east of here.

The victim was identified as Pamela Owens. Her father, who comes from Belmont, Calif., was hospitalized with head and chest injuries at Yuma, Colo.

Also injured in the accident and hospitalized were Mrs. Tina Owens, 25, the dead child's mother, and Owens' one-month-old son, Darren.

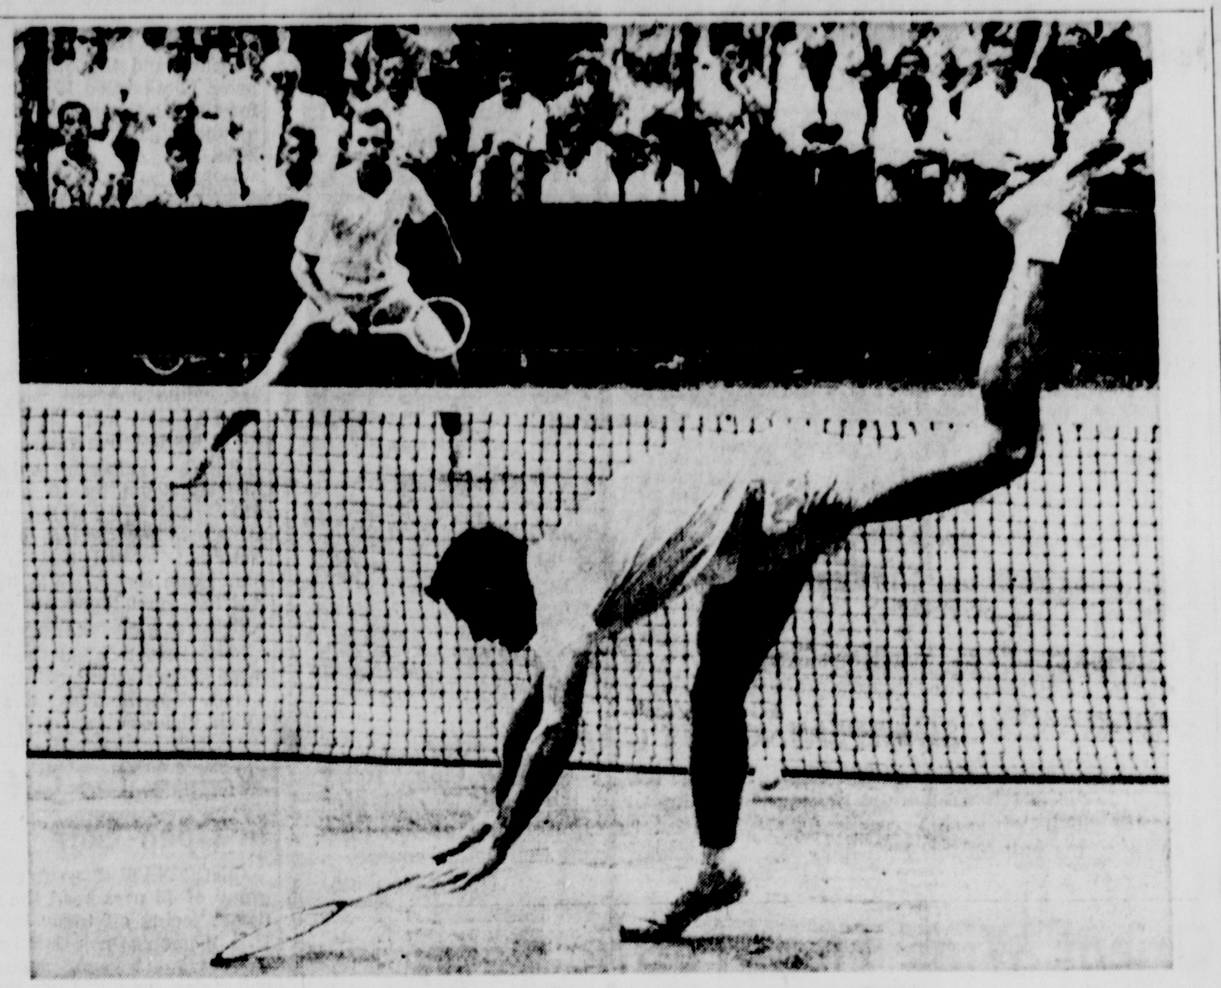
The Colorado State Patrol said the Owens car turned over after hitting a culvert off U.S. 36, one mile east of Joes at about 8:15 a.m. Pamela Owens died at the scene of a broken neck.

Angels Drop Bob Turley

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Turley, baseball's best pitcher five years ago, was discarded by the Los Angeles Angels today.

At the same time the American League club announced shifts involving six other players—two going down and four coming up.

General Manager Fred Haney said the Angels are asking waivers on Turley "for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release."



BERKELEY STAR ELIMINATED

Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis, Mo., didn't return this shot, but he went on to beat Berkeley's Tom Edlefsen 4-6, 7-5, 6-4 at the National Clay Courts tennis tournament in River Forest, Ill. Buchholz, younger brother of pro star Earl Buchholz, thus advanced to the quarter-final round. (AP Wirephoto)

Dodgers Operate On Theory That A Hero A Day Keeps Contenders Away

U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Los Angeles Dodgers are operating on the theory that a hero a day will keep the contenders away.

Sandy Koufax . . . Johnny Podres . . . Maury Wills . . . Tommy Davis . . . they've all taken their turns in the spotlight as the Dodgers have increased their National League lead to 6½ games and their won-lost percentage to .620.

And when they're not tearing up the peapatch, it seems that there's always somebody else—somebody like Ron Fairly or Ron Perranoski.

Fairly, who's been with the Dodgers since 1960 but rarely gets any publicity, and Perranoski, who's been with them since 1961 and is only beginning to get some, combined last night to enable the Dodgers to down the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2. The Dodgers have now won nine of their last 11 games and 14 of their last 17.

TO THE RESCUE

Fairly drove in two runs with a second-inning homer and a fourth-inning double and then Perranoski went to Bob Miller's rescue in a seventh-inning jam and shut out the Pirates with two hits the rest of the way. Miller received credit for his seventh win while Vern Law lost his fourth game.

The big Dodger drive has the other contenders gasping for breath — especially the San Francisco Giants, whose 9-7, 11th-inning loss to the New York Mets last night was their eighth in 10 games.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-4, in 12 innings and the Philadelphia Phillies scored a 10-9, 10th inning win over the Houston Colts in other N. L. games.

Dodgers Manager Walt Alston experienced one of his rare ejections when he protested umpire Ed Sudol's safe call at first base on a potential double play that would have taken Perranoski out of the crucial seventh. After Alston's departure, however, Perranoski went right back to work and retired dangerous Roberto Clemente for the third out of the frame.

The Cardinals moved into a virtual second-place tie with the Cubs on the strength of Bob Gibson's five-hit, 12-strikeout pitching and key eighth-inning doubles by Dick Groat and Bill White. Thirteen game winner Jim O'Toole suffered his fifth straight loss and eighth of the year for the Reds.

Joe Torres and Lee Maye had three hits each and Ed Mathews hit his 16th homer to lead the Braves' 16-hit attack which brought Hank Fisher his second triumph. Ellis Burton homered for the Cubs, whose three-game winning streak was snapped.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
IJ Fish and Game Writer

The Wise Fisherman Is He Who Pays Heed To Time And Tide

STEVENS

An old maxim tells us "tide and time wait for no man."

I add: "No man who will not wait for time and tide can expect to catch fish!"

The sad truth of the last is proven by the experience of this writer earlier this week. In company with two ardent anglers, old-timers Frank Andronico and Alf McNamee, he boarded a well-known boat berthed at the Berkeley Yacht Harbor. There we met three other avid anglers, Lloyd Parry of Concord and John and Janice Judy of Idaho Falls, Idaho. Like ourselves, this trio was all set to get its share of salmon out in the big briney.

High winds and rough water were sending even the commercial boats back to port, so our skipper decided our best chance for fish was with halibut in Bonito Cove or striped bass in Racoon Strait.

There were no signs of halibut, no indications that a stray salmon might be interested in our offerings, so we concentrated on trying for striped bass in Racoon. We trolled the area for probably two hours with meager results. John Judy finally hooked and landed a nice striper, and that was it.

A bit after 2 p.m., we tried Southampton Shoals; negative. We saw some birds working, but nary a hit. So we returned to port about 3 o'clock with only two bass, one of which was caught by the skipper.

WHY THE above recital?

Just that a check the next day disclosed that the good ship Troller, which had successfully trolled the Berkeley Flats the previous morning, had moved to the Raccoon Strait in the afternoon. From 4 p.m. on, it had good fishing with 14 stripers landed to eight pounds.

The Troller waited for time and tide!

Hal Boenner of Lee Anderson's Shop in Oakland verified the above report. Hal also reported the unusual catch of the boat Keesa on Sunday while fishing off Yellow Bluff. The party landed 57 red snappers to five pounds, 10 ling cod to eight pounds, and three striped bass to six pounds.

ALSO ON Sunday, history was made in the Clarence Brown clan. Son Mark, 10 years of age, hooked, played and landed, unaided, a nice 24-pound salmon off Point Reyes. Incidentally, the Mark Brown boat netted 10 fish last Friday and nine on Saturday. The fish ran to 30 pounds.

On Tuesday morning, early, one party boat landed seven nice bass in one pass over the Sand Bar at Alcatraz. At least part of the salmon fleet is working the Light Ship area. So prospects look much brighter for outside and inside angling if attention is paid to time and tide.

Giants, Dodgers Eye Pay TV For '64 Season

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants probably will show some of their games on pay television next year, an informed source told The Associated Press today.

Both clubs are negotiating with the Skiatron Electronics and Television Corp. of New York, this source said. While nothing has been signed yet, he said, there is every indication a deal will be made.

There has been talk of presenting baseball via pay television for years, but so far no team has exploited this medium. The AP source, who has connections both in New York and Los Angeles, said the Dodgers and Giants may not be the only teams involved in pay television negotiations.

Orient Wins Trans-Pacific Race; Overall Title Is Still Unsettled

HONOLULU (AP)—Winners in three classes were affirmed today, but the fourth division—the over-all fleet title — remained unsettled in the dying stages of the Transpacific yacht race.

The Class D Sloop Islander and the Class D yawl Tiare were in a dog fight for both division and over-all honors in the 2,225-mile Los Angeles-to-Honolulu event. Only two miles separated the yachts yesterday.

Islander had a slender lead on the basis of its handicap, although trailing Tiare in actual mileage. Carl Corkett's Islander, sailing out of Newport Beach, Calif., benefitted from a one hour, 43 minute handicap advantage of Tiare, owned by Marvyn Carton, of Kings Point, N. Y.

Only four boats were expected to be out on the course after today, according to race plotters. One is struggling along with half a mast.

The sloop Tyboon reported its mast snapped in 20 to 30 knot winds 340 miles out of Honolulu. The break was eight feet above the deck. The crew cut down a sail and patched together an emergency rig.

The Awahnee, the Japanese sloop Contessa III and the ketch Solveig were far back of the pack, with Solveig almost a cinch for the "Tail-End-Charlie" award. It was 630 miles out of Honolulu at the Wednesday roll-call.

The cutter Orient won the Class A title over Ticonderoga, the first boat to finish, and Audacious. The Ticonderoga had to give way too much of a handicap because of its length, weight and sail area.

The sloop Legend took Class B over Ichiban and Khamsin, and the sloop Mistress annexed Class C. Mistress beat out Patronilla and Starlight.

Fleet standings on a corrected time basis as of Wednesday roll call were: Islander, Tiare, Spirit, Mistress, Patronilla, Legend, Jo Too, Starlight, Annie Too, Koe Matu, Ichiban and Nalu II.

Foss Wins Endurance Tournament

Don Foss took an early lead and never looked back as he won the Country Club Bowl's Endurance Handicap Singles Tourney and the $200 first prize. Foss bowled 1875 scratch for the 10 games and his 166 handicap gave him a total of 2041.

This was 75 pins better than runnerup Weyman Fong could muster. Fong won $100 with his series of 1800-166—1966. Gary Johnson captured the $50 third place prize with 1879-73—1952.

Foss also won $25 for having the best initial five games, 944, while Johnson won the same amount with his 942 total in his last five games.

Charles Valsecchi edged Charles Bogni by 10 pins in 540 Scratch Trios action to top all league bowlers last week. Valsecchi totaled 846 in his four game series, while Bogni had 836 including a 268 game which was high for the week.

Mike Burlot rolled the best three game series, a 638 in the Mixed Up Doubles League which included games of 226 and 231. John Walker paced the juniors with his 231 game recorded in the Thursday Doubles League. He had a 610 series of three games.

Lil Scotto topped the women by rolling a 549 series of three in the Brunswick Travel League. She tied Maureen Ortman for high game with 201. Maureen got hers in the Sleepers Trio League.

Women Tee Off In Open Golf

CINCINNATI (AP) — A gifted group of 43 pros head the big names teeing off today in the U. S. Women's Open Golf Tournament but a young amateur had stolen some of their thunder with a practice hole-in-one.

Anne Richardson of Columbus, Ohio, 27-year-old stockbroker, scored the ace yesterday on the 150-yard sixth hole at Kenwood Country Club, where par is three.

Although this tournament never has been won by an amateur, Miss Richardson was among a strong group of 39 expected to give the pros a stiff fight—partly because some of the amateurs have played often at Kenwood.

No Matter Where You Go, Beer Drinkers Have Been There First

We are back from vacation—a boating trip that took us at times into a quasi-primitive area of the Delta. It's a silent, peaceful place, and it was actually difficult to think that others might have been there too.

Yet we always found the sign of civilized man. That inimitable status symbol. That marvelous fun-image: The empty beer can.

Let's face it! They're really loathsome . . . and a little pathetic. And they turn the beautiful countryside into the chaos of an untidy eagle's nest.

Cruising miles into the Delta, we cut our motor finally and paddled carefully through cattails and river reeds into the quietest place, where only the voice of the starling was heard . . . or a jumping fish.

A swimming otter paid us no mind. This was remote. A spot of lagoons, cottonwoods and dead-end sloughs, full of catfish. Dropping our lines, we pulled our hats over our faces and slumped.

What did we land? Right. An empty beer can.

We found them behind trees and in them. Ants found them excellent conduits. Some were on rocks and under rocks . . . contemporary studio apartment of the lizard. When the tide was low, they were revealed, littering the beaches.

Closer inspection showed the amazing methods used to open these cans. Most appalling were those rock-pounded open. Apparently they had been guzzled, then jumped on with both feet.

Some cans were pierced surgically in the approved spots. Others were opened entirely, as one would a can of pork and beans. Imagine—one was punched with only one small hole. Quite astonishing, and no doubt causing great mental anquish and inestimable frustration to the opener.

When the Martians finally pay us a visit, the empty beer can may be harder to explain than segregation.

If the present rate of filling is continued, the Bay may eventually be reduced to a ship's channel, lined with docks, factories, and dwellings, forever covering the present, wonderful open water.

This filling of the Bay's tide, marsh and submerged land is being viewed with increasing concern by the Marin Conservation League—and as a matter of fact, by all conservation groups in the Bay Area.

All you boaters out there: Don't say, "It can't happen. It's too way out."

Ten years ago Marin's marshlands were simply the home of the heron. Not worth filling. Remember?

Keep the development of the Bay in balance with man's needs and nature's requirements . . . and some wide, wide spots for good boating.

BOATS USING the Sacramento River can go past Red Bluff in either direction despite a diversion dam being constructed across the river. California uniform water marking system has been used in the area, indicating where boats should stay clear and the open channels for south bound and north bound vessels.

Boaters will encounter a current of approximately 6 miles per hour when passing through the dam and shallow waters approximately one and one-half feet deep below the dam.

The Division of Small Craft Harbors and Bureaus of Reclamation have jointly cooperated in an information sheet available in the Red Bluff area and from the bureau. It indicates the symbols in the channel, etc.

Laclan M. Richards, chief of the Division of Small Craft Harbors, warns that boaters will proceed at their own risk. The Bureau of Reclamation has indicated to the state that it will not be responsible for any navigation difficulties and hazards—even though the bureau has posted the area in conformance with state marking principles.

DID YOU KNOW this? Two-thirds of the water area in the Bay could be filled. To the boater and the huge related boating industry, this is a disquieting thought.

Stan Musial—Old Man River With Legs

By BOB GREEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Contrary to some rumors, Stan Musial is not older than the Mississippi River, the other old man that keeps rolling along in St. Louis. It just seems that way.

How long has it been since he broke into the majors? Well it sounds pretty long when you say it was 22 years ago. But it sounds even longer when you consider that when he broke in:

Frankie Albert was the hottest thing in college football, Bob Cousy was an 11-year-old kid in New York and Rocket Richard had yet to put a skate on National Hockey League ice.

KINER WAS 19

When Stan broke in with the Cardinals, Danny Murtaugh was a rookie at Philadelphia, Freddie Hutchinson was toiling for Buffalo, Johnny Pesky was a shortstop at Louisville, Billy Hitchcock was serving at Kansas City, Ralph Houk was a catcher at Binghamton and a 19-year-old kid outfielder was playing his first season of professional ball at Albany of the Eastern League. Name of Ralph Kiner.

Folks up in Brockton, Mass., were looking forward to the high school football season that summer. They had a real top boy playing center, name of Rocco Marchegiano. He later changed the spelling.

There were a bunch of other hot-shot high school kids who made it bigger in football than Rocco Marchegiano. Like Doc Blanchard, Glen Davis, Doak Walker, Charlie Trippi and Johnny Lujack. But none of them ever wanted to fight him.

TOUGH OUTFIELD

When Stan broke in he had to muscle his way into an outfield that included Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter. Leo Durocher was still filling at shortstop for the Dodgers from time to time, Mel Ott was still busting them out of the Polo Grounds, Paul and Lloyd Waner were very much in evidence and Casey Stengel was managing the Boston Braves.

Names that had yet to appear in a major league box score included Hank Bauer, Al Dark, George Kell, Andy Pafko, Del Rice, Bill Rigney, Mike Garcia, Ed Lopat, Vic Raschi, Allie Reynolds and Johnny Sain. All, of course, are long gone.

Joe Pepitone hadn't been born.

Why, Stan broke in so long ago, Warren Spahn hadn't even reached the majors.

Marin Car Scores Again At Vallejo

No. 36, the Hudson-powered special driven by Art Cirimele of Terra Linda, will be back at the Vallejo Speedway quarter-mile oval this Saturday night in an effort to annex new laurels.

The car, co-owned by Art's brother, Ray, won second in the second heat, first in the semi-main last Saturday night.

Those Fringe Benefits

By CORENA GREEN

Because of the fringe benefits, the annual Belvedere Tennis Tournament may become one of the most popular events in the country.

Not only are five days of exciting tennis offered this week to the young people who have come from all over California, but the junior hostesses, who are members of the Belvedere Tennis Club, have planned swimming, sailing picnics and a dance.

THE TOURNAMENT which has attracted many top players is being held on the courts of the Belvedere Tennis Club, the Tiburon Peninsula Club, the Harbor Point Club on the Strawberry Point and the private courts of Tom Fleming of Belvedere. Young people between 12 and 18 years of age are playing.

Sponsors are the Belvedere Tennis Club, the Belvedere City Recreation Department and the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce.

TEEN-AGE MEMBERS of the club have been busy planning the extra leisure time activities for the entrants. Housing has been made available for players living outside the 40 mile radius of Belvedere and each afternoon one of the families living on the Belvedere Lagoon has opened their home for sailing and swimming.

Cathy Atterbury is chairman of the junior hostesses. Assisting her are Karen Atterbury, Cathy Machette, Jane Franzel, Donna Allen, Jeanie

HOW TO MANEUVER a paddle board is demonstrated by Barry Laing of Sacramento to Janet Gailani and Mary Ann Owen, both of San Francisco. The tournament was also sponsored by the Belvedere City Recreation Dept. and the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce.

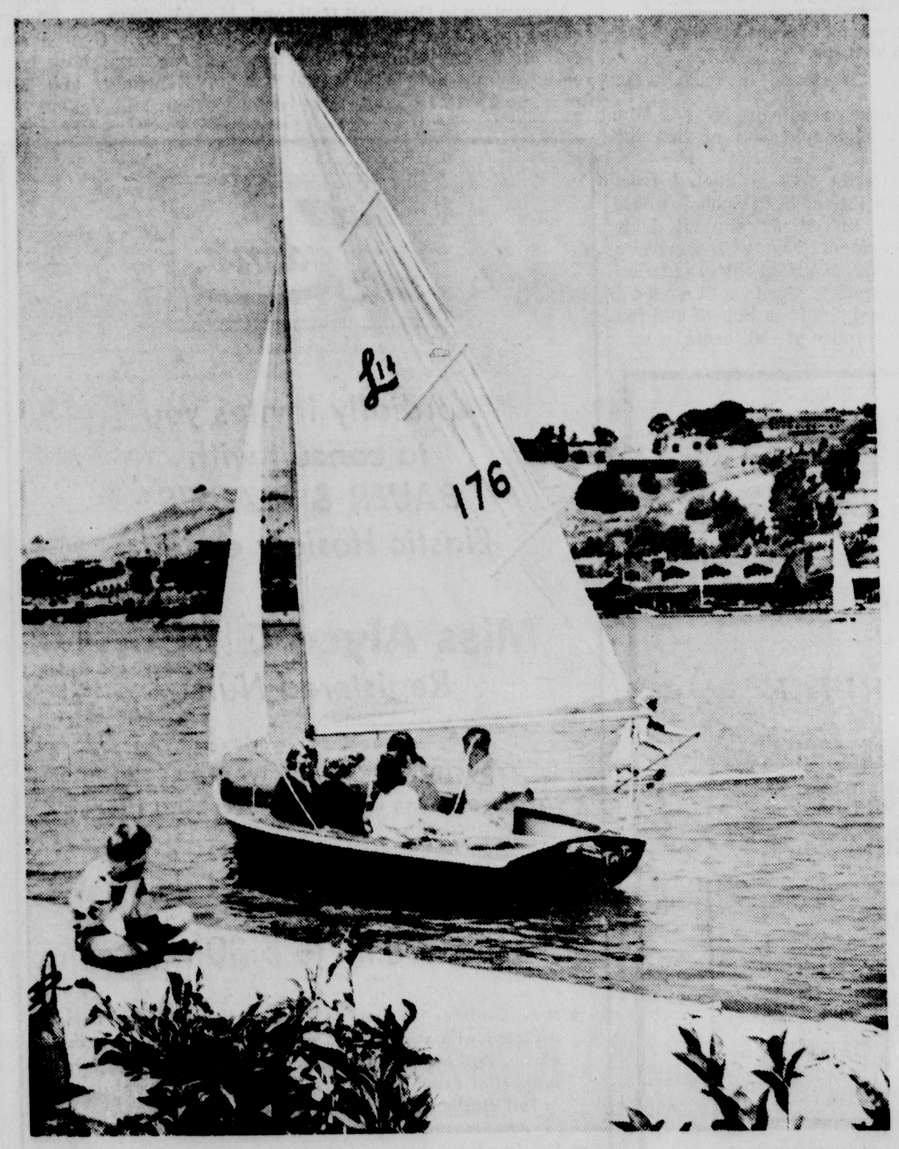
FOOD IS ALWAYS welcome especially after some hard fought tennis matches or a relaxing afternoon beside the Belvedere Lagoon. Hot dogs are served to Rich Slade of Redwood City, right, while Alan Russell of Saratoga helps Beth Plowman of Lodi season the salad.



RAY MOFFATT OF Mill Valley waits his turn for a ride as a Lido sails off from the dock of George Bitter home on the Belvedere Lagoon. Families opened their homes for the afternoon leisure activities. In the sailboat are Janet DeBerry, Sue De Berry, Toni Harris, Jo Ann Diederich and Pete Sternloff. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Baptismal Ceremony Held During Visit From France

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

A highlight of the Marin visit of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Girard Pastoriza Jr. (Nancy King) of Paris, France was the baptism of their year-old daughter, Lucie Ann, at St. John's Church, Ross last week. Hugh and Nancy with their baby were here to visit Nancy's mother, Mrs. Conklin King, her aunt, Miss Sybil Conklin, both of San Anselmo, and her uncle, Capt. A. P. Conklin of Ross. The visitors stayed at Captain Conklin's home while here. Lucie Ann wore a hand-made and hand embroidered dress, which her mother had worn at her baptism. The dress had been bought in Jerusalem by Nancy's grandmother, the late Mrs. Elma Conklin, who brought water from the River Jordan for Nancy's baptism.

A family friend, Mrs. Gladys Marie Jones of Carmel, a year ago went to the Holy Land and brought water from the River Jordan which was used in Lucie Ann's baptismal ceremony.

Rev. Charles B. Gompertz officiated at the baptism and the godparents were represented by proxies. Godparents are Hugh's sister, Mrs. Howard Bollinger of Riverside, Conn., Mrs. Alexander Schmidt-Felner also of Riverside, who was Nancy's matron of honor, and Hugh's brother, James Pastoriza of Pacific Palisades.

Hugh and Nancy with their baby sailed from Cannes, France to New York, where they visited relatives and friends in Boston and other Eastern cities.

Hugh is director of products and market planning for IBM World Trade Europe Corporation. He and his wife and little Lucie Ann returned to Europe aboard the SS France which landed in Le Havre. When they were midway in the Atlantic Nancy telephoned her mother.

Mrs. June Shaw Haseltine of Ross is leaving to spend the month of August at Glenbrook Inn, in the Tahoe country.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES B. JOHNSON, formerly of the Belvedere Lagoon, have bought a new home in Paradise Cay. They have a berth there for their power-cruiser, Trinidad Lady. The Johnsons' two sons, Bob and Brad, are both Redwood High School students.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY WINBLAD of Hawthorne Terrace, Tiburon had as their house guests for a week her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Montrose of Los Angeles and their daughter Marilyn.

Mrs. Winblad's aunt, Mrs. Athena Goodwin of Fresno, also visited the Winblads recently. The Winblads have three sons, Gary, Wade and Neal.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER JOSEPH entertained recently at a cocktail party at their Kent Woodlands home, which was attended by about 50 guests and honored Mrs. Joseph's sister, Mrs. Carlos Alfaro of Panama City. With Mrs. Alfaro were her children, Carlos and Brooke. Mr. and Mrs. Alfaro lived in England for several years when he was Panamanian ambassador to the Court of St. James. Mrs. Alfaro and her children left Tuesday. With them was the Joseph's son, Gary, 15. They went to Miami first and then to the Alfaros' summer home on an island near Panama. Gary will return home for the start of the school year.

MR. AND MRS. V. K. BRITT, formerly of Kentfield, now residents of Clear Lake Oaks had a recent reunion with their nine daughters and their families at a dinner at Rancho Nicasio. The daughters are Mesdames Lucille Lockard, Napa, Bill Cate, Portland, Ore., Rae Nystedt, San Rafael, Art Monday, San Francisco; Edward Metzler, Erie, Pa., Joseph Loolce, San Jose, Sherman Banks, San Anselmo, Gene Trout and David Hilman, both of Fairfax. Mr. and Mrs. Britt have 16 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Five of the grandchildren and the two great grandchildren were unable to attend the reunion.

Judith Erskine Recites Vows With Trulen Karnes

Christ Church in Sausalito was the setting for the wedding of Judith Nelden Erskine and Trulen F. Karnes Jr. on Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Denton N. Erskine of Sausalito and William W. Erskine of Genoa, Nev. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Trulen F. Karnes of Cayucas.

The double ring rites were performed at four o'clock by the Rev. Joseph S. Doran.

Judith, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Russell C. Mills of Mill Valley, recited her vows wearing a full length gown of white embossed cotton fashioned on princess lines. Her mantilla of Brussels lace belonged to a longtime family friend, Mrs. Ernest King of Sausalito.

Sue Ann Blakeley of Sausalito was maid of honor, and the bride's cousin, Pamela Glenn of Chico, and the bridegroom's cousin, Dale Nagel of Tulare, were bridesmaids. They were attired in street length sheaths of yellow and white imported cotton.

His brother, Eugene Karnes of Tulare, served the bridegroom as best man, and his cousin, Clyde Stagner of Tulare, and the bride's brother, William W. Erskine III of Sausalito, were ushers.

Present for the wedding were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. W. W. Erskine of Mill Valley and Mrs. H. E. Nelden of Los Angeles, and her great aunt, Miss Francess Evans of Los Angeles. Also present were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Nagel of Tulare.

A reception in Campbell Hall across from the church was held after the wedding. The young couple left afterward for a short trip to Santa Cruz and will take a longer time later at Yosemite.

They will live in Tulare until the fall when they will reside in Manteca, where Judith will be teaching first grade and her husband will teach high school algebra and geometry.

The bride was graduated from Tamalpais High School and the College of Marin, where she was a member of Chi Nu Theta, and she is a graduate of San Francisco State College.

Trulen was graduated from high school in Tulare, attended the College of the Sequoias in Visalia. After serving four years in the U. S. Air Force he continued his education at California Polytechnic Institute, graduating last June with major in mathematics.

Tiburon Hill Co-Op Apartments First Six Units To Be Shown

The first six units in the Tiburon Hill Cooperative Apartments will go on display tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday. A furnished two-bedroom model is being shown.

The development is located on Tiburon Boulevard adjacent to Reedlands Heights and one mile from Highway 101. Occupancy is scheduled to be available beginning Aug. 1. In the entire project there will be 164 units varying in size from one-bedroom to three-bedroom and den apartments. Among the latter there are 22 penthouse suites.

Paul Golz, representative of the Foundation for Cooperative Housing on the West Coast and vice president of the F. C. Housing Co. in charge of the planning, expects to move into the development, along with some of the other principals involved. The foundation also sponsored the co-op apartments in Terra Linda Gardens.

Agents will be on the premises to negotiate transactions.

THE BAIMAR CORP., a group of Marin investors, has purchased the five lots on Cedar Avenue, San Anselmo, which David Rosenberg of Kentfield and his associates had planned to turn into a $250,000 housing development last February. The sale was handled by San Rafael realtors William Nock and Co.

Baimar's treasurer P. Roy Vallarino has announced that construction on the four fourplexes and two duplexes originally contemplated and designed by Gilan-Farr and Coleman will commence immediately. Completion is expected in about six months.

STUART BODY SHOP that opened last March at 722-A Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, is being changed to a more fitting name—Stuart Garage. Owner James Stuart is now performing all types of auto repairs. His specialty service is taking in cars from salesmen and commuters and working on them during the night, with delivery the next morning.

LARGER QUARTERS have been opened by Taft Travel at 532 Third Street, San Rafael. The Tafts have moved downstairs to Suite E, giving them twice as much space as before for expansion and storage.

SLENDER-VOGUE, a new slenderizing salon will be opened at 91 Redhill Avenue, San Anselmo, next Saturday by Dorothy Chapman of Mill Valley. Facilities consist of coin-operated machines, gymnasium equipment and beauty service. "Head to toe" beauty treatments are featured.

PUT A POSTAGE STAMP behind your ear and if it's the right color, scarcely anyone will notice it. Physicians Optical Co., San Rafael, has announced a new hearing aid by Zenith just about that size. It weighs one-quarter ounce, battery included, and picks up decibels in all kinds of listening situations.

Physicians Optical gives this warning against using these devices in watching Saturday's eclipse of the sun. Avoid: Sun glasses, smoked glass, overexposed negatives (unless completely darkened) or looking at the sun through a pinhole. Safest method is projecting the sun through a pinhole in a shoebox in a darkened room. Save your eyes.

Why isn't advertising always this nice? Warm and human . . . simple and direct . . . honest.

Most advertising tries to be. Most advertising talks honestly about why you should buy certain products or services, or shop in a certain store. It talks in a competitive way—because advertising is the voice of our free, competitive economic system. But it talks in a nice way—like one good person to another.

Sure, some advertising shouts. Some advertising is loud and vulgar. Some advertising, a very little bit, is deceitful. Like some salesmen you may have met. Or like some politicians.

Still, would you want to eliminate all salesmen? Or give up free political expression?

New Tunnel At Oregon Line Will Affect Marin County

In our daily use of Highway 101 here in Marin County, we tend to forget that it is but a small section of the Redwood Highway that stretches from San Francisco to Grants Pass, Oregon.

Except on those occasions when we drive up the coast on vacation or business, we tend to forget that what happens to the route in other counties has a direct effect here. In years past, we have become acutely aware of this when Eel River floods closed the highway altogether for extended periods. But when the route is reopened, we quickly forget again.

This coming Saturday will bring some significant changes in the northernmost link of the Redwood Highway, the section that leads from Crescent City up over the mountains and down into Grants Pass.

A new 4.3-mile section of highway will be formally dedicated including the 1,835-foot Randolph Collier Tunnel through Oregon Mountain at the California-Oregon state line.

This 7.5 million dollar project cuts the distance between Crescent City and Grants Pass by 2.8 miles, eliminating 128 curves, five hairpin switchbacks and a steep grade that climbs nearly 1,000 feet in slightly more than four miles.

Although rights of way have been acquired for an eventual four-lane highway, only two lanes have been constructed in this initial phase.

The new route is designed for 60-mile-an-hour travel, with a six per cent maximum grade. An additional lane has been provided for slow moving trucks on upgrades.

Engineers estimate that average driving time between Crescent City and Grants Pass will be reduced by about half an hour.

When you come south on Highway 99 (also known as Interstate 5) you have an alternative when you reach Grants Pass. If you keep right onto the Redwood Highway the mileage to San Francisco is slightly less than remaining on 99, and the scenery through our beautiful redwoods and along our picturesque oceanshore is far superior. But the driving time would be somewhat greater via the Redwood Highway.

If you swing left at Grants Pass, remaining on Highway 99, you travel through Sacramento Valley on roads that for much of the distance are straight, flatter and faster. Although the distance via the valley is greater to San Francisco, the traveling time has been somewhat less.

Now the new Randolph Collier Tunnel and its approaches are going to cut down this time differential, almost removing it.

This means an increasing number of travelers will elect to come down our highway.

Incidentally, they will be buying meals and gasoline (and if they are vacationers, they probably will be staying over along the way to spend more time enjoying our scenic attractions).

This will give a boost to the economy of the Redwood Empire counties, including Marin.

Thus it is appropriate to recognize that Saturday's tunnel dedication at the Oregon line has meaning and importance right here in Marin.

'WHAT ARE YOU LAUGHING AT?'

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

CHECK ON YOURSELF

A ship's chief engineer got a reply he scarcely expected from a fireman recently assigned to his crew.

He saw the young man for the first time on a routine visit to the engine room. "How long have you been working down here?" he asked.

"Ever since I saw you coming down the ladder," was the new arrival's frank answer.

Those who fulfill their responsibilities only when someone is checking up on them seldom make much of their lives. They short-change others by failing to live up to their obligations, but they cheat themselves even more.

Wherever you are, or whatever you do, you are always in the presence of God. And you are ultimately responsible to Him for all that you think, say and do.

If you are constantly motivated by this inspiring thought, you will find an increasing joy and satisfaction in life. And you will conscientiously perform your duties at home, on the job and everywhere else, whether anyone is watching you or not.

"Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation!"
(2 Corinthians 6:2)

It is a consolation, O Lord, to know that You know my every thought, word and deed.

NEWS IN THE YEAR 2,163

Journals Of The Space Age Won't Be Too Different

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Selected society and political news from space age newspapers in the year 2,163:

LONDON — A government crisis was averted after all members of the Labor cabinet swore in the House of Lords that they had never spent weekends en masse on the planet Venus.

ROME—Pope Pius XV, in an eloquent appeal for universal peace called upon all the inhabitants of the solar system to adopt eternal principles of social justice to avert the threat of calamitous skywide warfare.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President and Mrs. John Adams Roosevelt Rockennedy celebrated their 100th wedding anniversary with their 817 living descendants. A quiet family game of touch water polo in the Potomac featured the day's festivities.

MOSCOW — The new Tory government announced a 35 per cent pay bonus for everybody, the invention of a new three-pants suit, and said the Bureau of Industry had turned out 3 billion, 200 million swivel chairs during the current year.

NEW YORK—One of our latest-model tourist ferryboats to Mars has been unreported for five minutes. It is feared that it was struck by an asteroid. Some 8,612 passengers —and the two crewmen—are thought lost.

CORNCOB, Neb. — Jasper Y. Taller, local county agent, disclosed today the U.S. Department of Agriculture is secretly going forward with plans to store surplus corn and wheat on the planet Jupiter. Local bin owners, claiming this is a Communist plot, have called an indignation meeting.

ALBANY, N.Y.—Gov. Robert Kennefeller told New York State's 512,000 hard-hit schoolteachers his economy budget forbade any increase in their present $35,000-a-year salaries.

Public Wants Truth In Art

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Apparently all it takes to become an artist is to amble down to the nearest art supply store, secure a few paints, canvas or paper and maybe a couple of frames. Don't let your artistic ignorance stop you from expressing yourself.

Go down to any of the so-called art clubs in the neighborhood. Don't worry. They'll receive you with open arms as long as you can show you are a paying member. Who cares whether you had any previous art education. You've got just as much right to express yourself as anyone else. Who knows, you may have hidden talent.

I can name quite a few bay area artists of note who for the past fifty years have been looking for that hidden talent and are still not satisfied with their artistic endeavors. So what right do people have to set themselves up as art leaders when they have never proved their own art abilities to the real art world. By this I mean to men and women who through the years have given a lifetime of study to creating things of real beauty for the layman to admire and enjoy.

So, Mr. Editor, in answer to your thoughtful editorial, "Paintings For People," let me say this: As long as we have the wrong kind of art clubs to contend with, we will have to put up with these sick people running around the country calling themselves artists. There has been more nonsense written about art than any other subject. The proof of all art lies simply in what it can add to the experience of the beholder. I know from my own experience as an artist that the general public appreciates truthful and understandable paintings.

ALFRED OWLES,
Santa Venetia.

P.S. If you want to see some good understandable art see my show at the Woodlands Restaurant during July.

Inverness Folk 'Up In Arms'

EDITOR,
Independent Journal:

Enclosed you will find a copy of a letter I have just addressed to the Board of Supervisors concerning fire hazard.

A lot of very high-handed decisions have been made in our little town of Inverness, and most of the responsible citizens are rather up in arms about it. For instance, the Garden Club and the Improvement Association have spent many dollars and hours over the past 10 years trying to beautify the little brook that runs through the town, only to have the Highway Department up there, without consulting anyone, dump all kinds of dirt into the brook, covering up all the plants that have been placed there.

Agreements have been made with the folks that if they were going to make any particular change in format of the village that we would be consulted. We have never been consulted. This last thing that they did, and about which my letter is concerned, is something about which the whole town is up in arms. Why they have done it, I do not know, and no matter how many inquiries we make of our supervisor or head of the Road Department there, we get no satisfactory answers whatsoever. We are becoming just a little bit exasperated.

Leaving all the beauty out, the fire hazard is an extremely important one. You might be able to fool around with plants and trees, even though they are unmercifully cut, but when you are dealing with people's lives in case of a fire hazard, it's even more important, I believe.

A brush fire on mountain slopes above Mill Valley to the northwest was extinguished near a point where the 1929 disaster costing 100 homes in the same area might have been repeated.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Real Estate Is Seen As Vital In Marin School Integration

A GUY'S "BEAT" won't stay quiet while he's on vacation.

I see by the papers that while I was away the sedate Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, board president, used the word "damned" in a row with fellow trustee Kent O. Seymour of the Marin Junior College District board.

But at last Thursday night's study session, which I covered, Mrs. Deedy and Seymour got along serenely together as usual.

Also during my absence there was a taxpayer's revolt in Larkspur School District after trustees voted pay raises for the superintendent and teachers in the wake of defeat of the June 4 tax and bond measures.

Hope Supt. Milton S. Cohen doesn't regret quitting good old Cupertino Union School District in Santa Clara County to come to Marin.

IN LARKSPUR Councilman Daniel Allen retired and successfully nominated former Planning Commission Chairman Vaughn Marker as his successor.

I'm sure many residents interested in Larkspur progress cheered Marker's choice. But it's too bad to see Allen step down. He helped bring humor and sanity to council meetings.

Not that Marker lacks humor and sanity. I just wish the council could have Allen AND Marker.

An oldtimer tells me Allen is the only man he knows who worked hard to educate himself for his council duties. A good many new councilmen foul up meetings by continually asking for information. Not Allen. Right after his election he studied old minutes and the city ordinances.

MAYOR Lesly A. Daveler is still in there pitching. He cast the sole vote against a pay raise for City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper, though he probably won't mind continuing to add to Piper's work load—by asking for more reports on the numerous subjects into which he likes to delve.

I remember when Daveler and Councilman Robert J. Smith blocked a retirement plan last April. Piper observed wistfully: "The plan won't do me any good. I'll die on this job."

It will be interesting to see how Marker reacts to the Larkspur Council uproars.

The City Hall is a wind tunnel when the council meets!

THE MARIN HOSPITAL District board voted to continue Jules Becker as public relations man after a row. The Corte Madera Sanitary District board picked a maintenance superintendent for certain duties formerly held by William A. Adam, fired as secretary-manager May 8.

Belatedly the sanitary district last week confirmed that mechanic Max H. Graefe, fired by Adam and then temporarily rehired by the board, had been given his notice July 2 when the board abolished his job effective July 31.

Both districts have been headaches to cover. Both promised fuller news disclosure. Hospital headaches date from before Becker's time.

AS FOR the vacation, I spent it in the Pacific Northwest, where the word "revolution" is used to describe the Seattle civil rights struggle. Many feel the question of which schools Negroes attend hinges on where they live, making the issue center on where real estate dealers rent or sell to Negroes.

My hunch is Marin integration also will hinge on real estate.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Soviet Lead In Nuclear Weapons Would Be Enforced By Ban

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—A new Soviet nightmare in cataclysmic weapons hangs like a fearsome cloud over the East-West nuclear test ban talks getting underway in Moscow.

The Russians have successfully tested the SS-8, a third generation intercontinental ballistic missile that is far more powerful and accurate than the giant ICBMs they already have.

This foreboding development means that Soviet rocket scientists have perfected an ICBM "carrier" for their steadily increasing stockpile of 50 to 100-megaton "super" H-bombs. One megaton is the quivalent of one million tons of TNT.

Gen. Curtis LeMay disclosed this startling information to the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee in expressing his frank opposition to the U.S. entering into an unpoliced nuclear test ban agreement with Russia.

THE OUTSPOKEN Air Chief of Staff warned the senators that the Soviet is now substantially ahead of the U.S. in the development and testing of giant nuclear weapons and their "carriers," and that a treaty banning tests of them in the atmosphere would definitely continue the Reds in their sinister lead.

General LeMay asserted that Air Force Intelligence is now firmly convinced the Russians are giving the development of giant ICBM "carriers" top priority. This belief is strongly supported by data based on recent Soviet missile tests in the Pacific, which Air Force experts feel quite certain completed the development of the deadly SS-8.

At a closed door session with the same Senate committee, Central Intelligence Director John McCone agreed with LeMay's grim report on the Soviet's superiority in super nuclear weapons.

However, while conceding that the Russians have the "capability" of delivering "super bombs," McCone expressed the opinion that Soviet priority is now centered on the production of a new ICBM that is considerably lighter and more mobile than the huge SS-8.

NEW SOVIET MISSILE — As described by the CIA chiefs this latest Soviet missile is similar to our Minuteman, that has a range of 5,000 miles and is just becoming operational.

The Russian version of the missile is launched from pads that are cheaper to construct and perhaps capable of being better camouflaged than other Soviet ICBMs. The missile is deemed to have full inertial guidance, instead of the combination of radio and built-in guidance of earlier models.

In the judgment of CIA, this new Red missile is an exceptionally satisfactory weapon for a nation whose military theorists insist about all on the crucial importance of "pre-emption"—the necessity to strike first in the employment of nuclear arms.

THESE AND OTHER still-classified details of the Soviet's stupendous nuclear-missile capabilities will be made public by Senator John Stennis (D-Miss.), chairman when and if a nuclear test ban treaty is submitted to the Senate for ratification.

These profoundly disturbing intelligence reports explain why to this day no senator on either the Armed Services Committee or the Joint Atomic Committee has put his name on the Humphrey-Dodd resolution favoring an agreement banning nuclear tests in the atmosphere and underwater.

This highly significant abstention is not generally known, but it has been carefully noted in important congressional quarters.

Rely On Yourself At Own Peril When Sitting At Bridge Table

Self-reliance gets good marks in all the books, so I'm risking black looks by giving it a hot-foot in print.

Still, devotion to my readers comes first.

Opening lead — ♠ K

When this hand came along in a tournament last month, West was a manly type with a strong chin and a clear eye.

BILIOUS

You could see self-reliance in the set of his shoulders—and perhaps also in his partner's bilious face.

The trouble with being self-reliant at the bridge table is that it plays hob with your partner.

The poor fellow goes to great trouble to make the right bid or the right play, only to discover that nobody is listening to him.

INDICATES LEAD

In this case East took the trouble to indicate a good opening lead by doubling two clubs.

When North later bid two notrump it became clear that a club opening lead would come through strength.

But West wasn't listening. He squared his shoulders and led the king of spades.

SHIFTED

This made it easy for South. He won and returned a spade. West stepped up with the jack of spades and shifted, too late, to the six of clubs.

South could play low from dummy, win any return, and lead another spade toward dummy to set up the 10 of spades as his ninth trick.

Strangely enough, South can make three notrump even against a club lead—but nobody at the tournament managed it.

It pays to give your opponent a difficult task instead of making matters easy for him.

'Old No. 8' Is Cleared Of Charges

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A charge that the "Old No. 8" steam locomotive of the Feather River Shortline Railroad violated federal safety regulations a year ago by making a run for railroad fans went up in a puff of steam yesterday.

Federal Judge Sherrill Halbert ruled today that the historic locomotive did not have to have its boiler inspected because it belonged to a nonprofit organization—the Shortline Railroad.

The locomotive was fired up and run for railroad fans over Quincy Railroad's tracks more than a year ago.

Halbert said the federal boiler inspection law applies to locomotives owned by a carrier and used in the service of a carrier.

The Interstate Commerce Commission brought suit against Quincy Railroad for refusal to pay a $250 fine.

When Abraham Lincoln was elected president in 1860, the City of Washington had a population of about 100,000.

Phone Company Says It Pays Western Less

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. said yesterday that it pays Western Electric, it manufacturing sister in the Bell System, less for equipment than Western Electric's competitors would demand.

This statement was made by PT&T counsel Francis N. Marshall at the opening of the Western Electric phase of the California Public Utilities hearing on the rates and practices of PT&T.

Marshall was seeking to rebut a contention of the PUC staff that PT&T wrongfully pays millions of dollars each year to Western Electric because the manufacturing firm takes a higher profit than the 6.75 per cent authorized for PT&T.

Time-Telling Arm Is Stolen From Sun Dial

The hours are there but vandals have stolen the time-telling arm from the sun dial in Mill Valley's Lytton Square.

The arm was broken off during the weekend, according to S. J. Weil, a member of the Rotary Club which installed the timepiece. A new arm will be installed as soon as one can be obtained from the factory, he said.

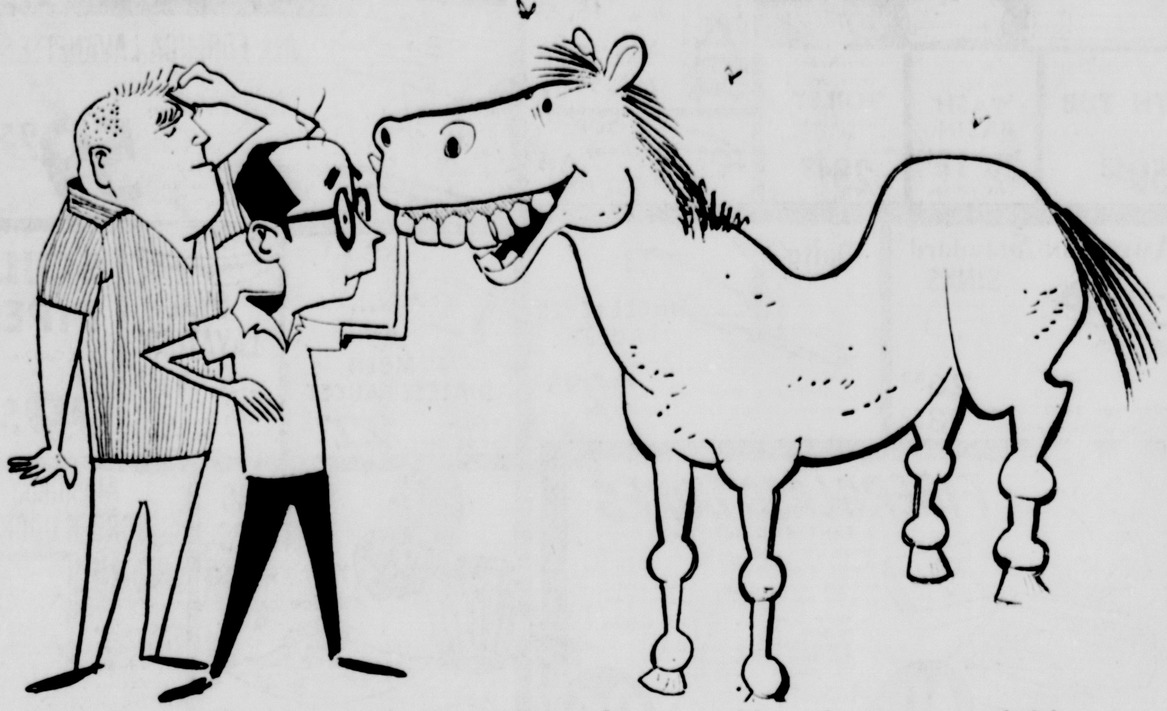
Juanita Sued For $250,000

A Daly City laborer, who suffered a skull fracture in a brawl at Juanita's Galley last March, filed a $250,000 damage suit against Juanita Musson in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

Peter R. Page, 26, who was struck over the head with an ax on the morning of March 16, claimed Mrs. Musson allowed "persons who had known propensity for fighting to be on the premises." He alleged she failed to stop the fighting as soon as possible and failed to provide a staff adequate to police the premises.

Page was a member of a San Francisco motorcycle club which got into a brawl with a group of young Negroes. Page contends he suffered a fractured skull, severe nervous shock, and head injuries.

We'll trade for anything!

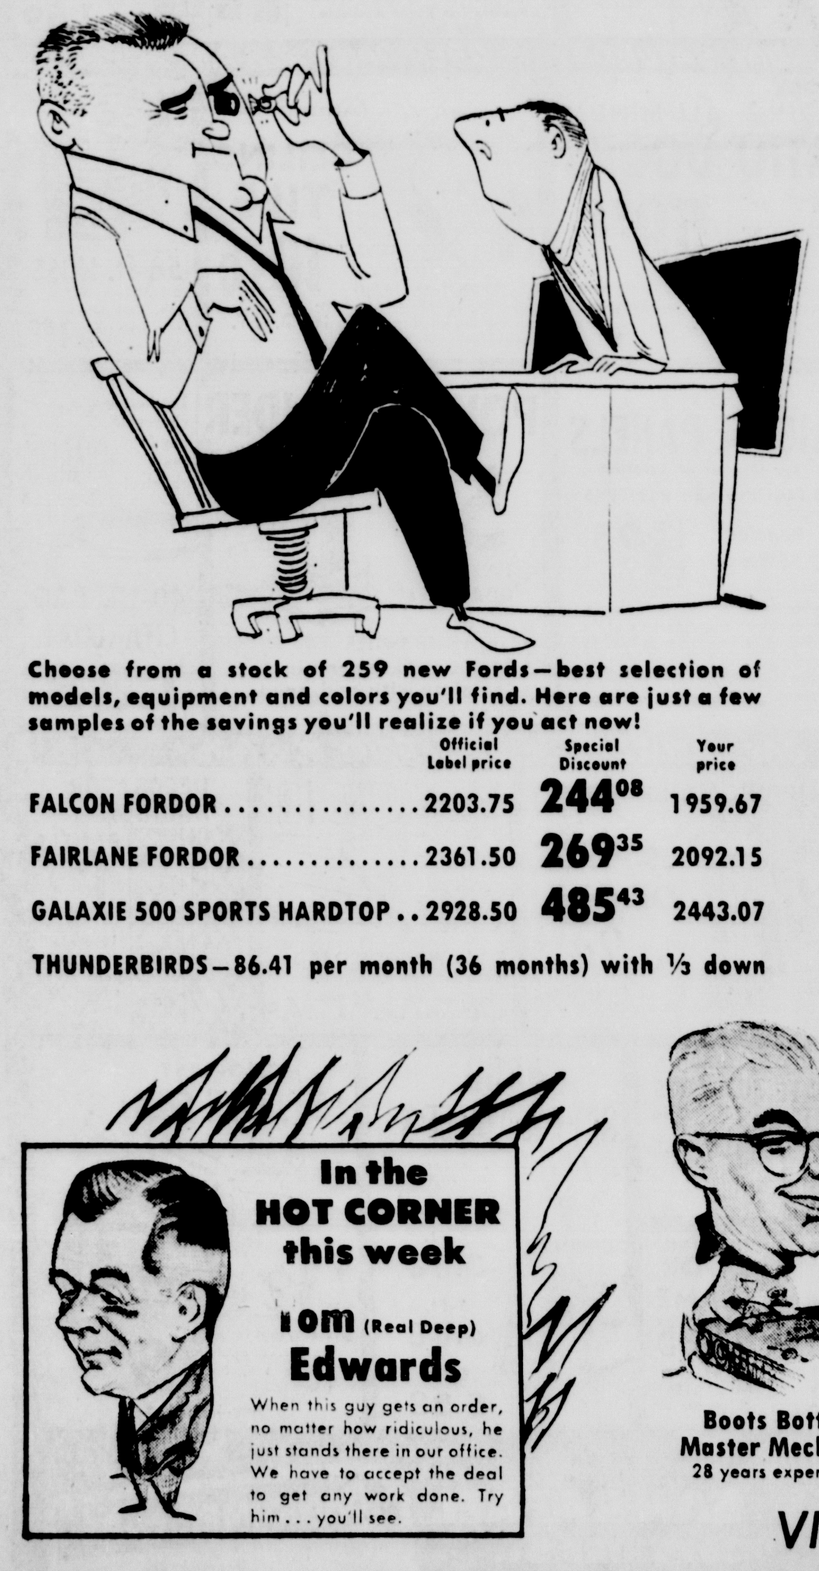


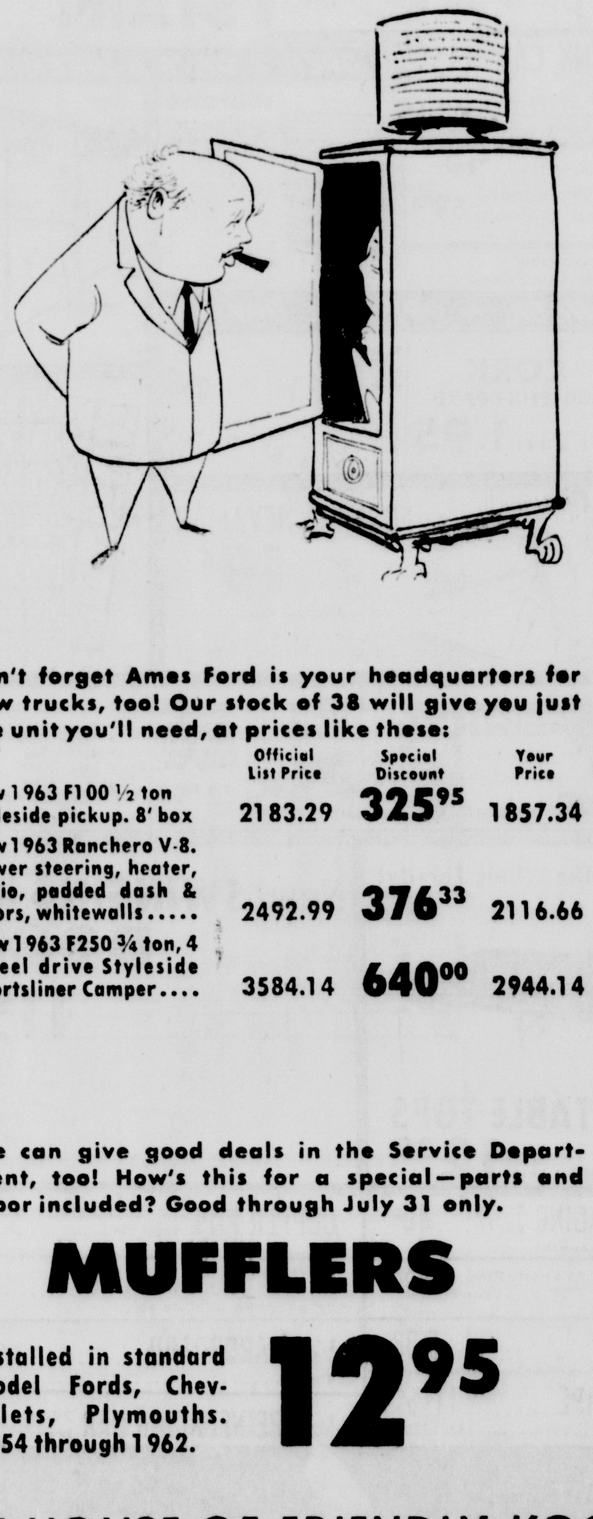
Have an ol' swayback? A diamond ring that turned out to be zircon? A noisy refrigerator that keeps food tepid? An import that's too much like a toy? Or . . . any white elephant? We'll take 'em in trade on the new Ford or selected used car of your choice. And, typically, you'll get a gratifying trade-in allowance . . . and pay less for your car than at any Ford dealer in all of Northern California.

With or without a trade-in, cash or the most liberal terms available anywhere, you can buy your new 1963 Ford from Ames Ford at prices no other dealer can match or beat. 175 discerning buyers discovered this fact in June, making us one of the THREE LARGEST SELLING Ford dealers North of Los Angeles.

We won!
We won!

And, we sing with joy 'cause we'll have Lou in Hawaii and Zim in Jamaica—far, far away —even for a little while!





Choose from a stock of 259 new Fords—best selection of models, equipment and colors you'll find. Here are just a few samples of the savings you'll realize if you act now!

Why get "slugged" with taxes? Own your own condominium-apartment and take advantage of substantial tax savings denied renters.

Check off this list of advantages...

1. Very low cash investment (12% down).
2. No additional investment in such "extra" furnishings as drapes, carpeting, refrigerator.
3. No yard work . . . not even a pool to clean. It's all done for you at a monthly charge (including your utilities and insurance) of $29.71.
4. Tax advantages. Through condominium ownership you get substantial write-off for interest and taxes paid out. How much better than a pile of cancelled rent checks.
5. Through ownership, your monthly payments build up equity. At resale you stand an excellent chance for substantial capital gain.
6. Brand new; compact; convenient to transportation and shopping. The new EMPORIUM nearby.
7. Community living at its finest. Swimming pool, recreation room, congenial friends.

Italians Eat It Their Way

ROME (AP) — American tourists visiting Italian restaurants are sometimes amazed to see Italian customers holding dripping spaghetti above them and "inhaling" it, rather than twisting it on a tablespoon.

Italian etiquette is that if you must twist it, do it one-handed with your fork against the plate.

But to twist it on a spoon is strictly a lower-class maneuver, and to cut it up is strictly American. The truly elite "slurp" their spaghetti.

New Collier Tunnel Ready For Travel

Driving time between Crescent City and Grants Pass, Oregon, will be cut nearly half an hour Saturday with dedication of the new 7.5-million-dollar Randolph Collier Tunnel.

The 1,835-foot bore through Oregon Mountain in the Siskiyou Range will eliminate 128 curves and hairpin switchbacks, and a steep 950-foot grade on Highway 199.

Honor guest at the dedication ceremonies will be State Sen. Randolph Collier (D.-Yreka), chairman of the Senate Highway and Transportation Committee, "father of California's freeway system." Local dignitaries and directors of the Redwood Empire Assn. also will attend.

The tunnel is a key link in the new Winnemucca - to - the - Sea Highway, a 495-mile direct route from north central Nevada to the Pacific.

The 4.3-mile segment of highway and tunnel replaces 7.1 miles of winding two-lane road, which in turn dates back to a redwood plank pack trail over which supplies were carried to Southern Oregon mines in the 1850s.

Highlight of the weekend-long celebration marking completion of the Collier Tunnel will be a joint session of the Senate and Assembly transportation committees Friday in Crescent City.

D.C. Civil Defense Behind The Times

By NORMAN G. CORNISH

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain was sitting in his office two years ago when the air raid siren on the next building went off and, in his words, "almost blasted me out of my chair."

Chamberlain realized that he had at that moment "no idea" what to do if a real nuclear attack hit Washington. He checked around and found that no one else did either. So he dashed off a letter to the Federal Civil Defense headquarters.

In a few days, Chamberlain got a reply—five copies of a civil defense pamphlet and the word that J. George Stewart was civil defense coordinator for the Capitol and would get in touch with him "shortly" to tell him what to do.

Chamberlain sat across from Stewart in a congressional hearing this week and told him he had been waiting for the answer ever since.

Stewart admitted that no attack plan was in effect for the Capitol right now but there would be in a couple of months, that is, a couple of months after the Senate rules committee approves the establishment of shelters for the Capitol. House Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass.) already has given his approval.

Chamberlain was incredulous.

"Why has it taken so long to get permission from ourselves?" he demanded.

He said Congress was being asked to approve an administration plan to encourage communities across the nation to "roll up their sleeves" and build more fallout shelter facilities, "but we haven't been able to do anything right here."

Stewart said a lot of surveys had to be made and that took time. Now, he said, the capitol was "ready to go"—once the Senate committee acts.

McCormack was quoted as saying that he was heartily in favor of the shelters and felt Congress should "set the example for the nation." Chamberlain said he thought so too, but up to now there hadn't been much of an example.

"What are we supposed to do?" he snapped. "Just every man for himself scrambling around?"

Stewart promised that all would be worked out. He said he had a "little group" working on it, recruiting first aid volunteers and so forth. He said 35,617 shelter spaces would be provided on Capitol Hill and stocked with emergency food and other supplies.

Chamberlain then wondered aloud if the White House was equipped similarly. He put the question to George Roderick, civil defence director for Washington.

"I don't know," Roderick replied.

"Well, who does know?" Chamberlin said. "I think this thing is getting ridiculous."

No answer was forthcoming.

"I'll write them a letter," Chamberlain sighed.

Mill Valleyan Fined For Drunken Driving

James Joseph Flagerman, 44, of 33 Strawberry Circle, Mill Valley, paid $166 fine yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court sentenced him for driving while intoxicated along Highway 101 near Corte Madera last Sunday. Flagerman's driving is restricted for three months, and he is on probation for six months.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

People Show Different Ability To Stand Extreme Heat Of Summer

VAN DELLEN

A Chicagoan recently asked: "Why do so many people complain about the summer heat and others do not? Do the ones who feel the heat need a medical examination because they might have high or low blood pressure or another ailment?"

These questions are not easy to answer except that blood pressure rarely is a factor. Some people adapt to high temperatures more easily than others because they have a more efficient heat regulating system. This involves a number of body processes. They may perspire more freely, for example, which in turn has a cooling effect.

INDIVIDUALS who come into the world with nonfunctioning sweat glands are the most miserable of all during warm weather. Their skin is dry and the body temperature goes up unless they have air conditioning or sit in a tub of cool water.

Other people complain of summer heat because they perspire profusely. These men and women are healthy and are doing what comes naturally. Their objections are mainly esthetic; they don't like being wet and sticky. Still others are uncomfortable because the sweat contains too much salt. The loss of this mineral makes them feel weak, dizzy, nauseated, and faint. Many develop a miserable headache as though allergic to heat. The use of salt tablets solves their problem.

METABOLISM also enters the picture. Those with low readings are more comfortable than individuals with high metabolism. Vice versa is true during the winter. Certain drugs, beverages, and condiments cause a feeling of warmth. Weight and activity contribute to feeling the heat, as does the food intake and the type of clothing. Some people do not realize what a difference light, loose garments make. Men especially may wear winter suits and shirts the year 'round.

It is reasonable to believe that a good night's sleep during hot weather improves the disposition and helps the individual tolerate the heat better during the day. It is here that fans, cross-ventilation, and air conditioning are invaluable.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

PRESSURE IS A SPUR

Hazel writes: Our history class is having a debate: "Resolved, that everyday pressures are making us a nervous race." Four of the team will take one side and four the other. I am the captain. Since you are a doctor, please give your side of the qeustion.

REPLY

Ordinary pressures are making us a more alert and productive nation. There is no reason to call us a nervous race just because some people can't take it.

OMIT SLAW

A. W. writes: I had a bleeding ulcer that healed. Can I now eat cole slaw?

REPLY

Not if the lesion has just healed. A person who has had an ulcer can do without such roughage because there always is the danger of recurrence.

RABIES

Mrs. W. writes: When a person is bitten by a mad dog, does he froth at the mouth like the animal?

REPLY

Yes, if he develops rabies. But frothing at the mouth is the least of all the symptoms of this horrible disease.

MALARIA IS CURABLE

Mrs. J. F. writes: If a person gets malaria, will he have it the rest of his life?

REPLY

No, the majority of victims are cured with the anti-malarial drugs.

ONE MEAL A DAY

A. K. writes: Isn't a woman of 60, who eats only 1 meal a day (meatless) to avoid overweight, undermining her health?

REPLY

Not necessarily, provided the meal is balanced. The meat deficiency can be made up by substituting milk and cereals but this woman ought to have her blood checked because of the possibility of developing anemia.

TINY HEMORRHAGES

F. K. writes: What causes the eruption called petechiae?

REPLY

These are small hemorrhages into the skin, caused by the rupture of capillary loops. There are many causes or reasons why the capillaries are more fragile than normal.

CORNEAL ULCER

R. M. writes: What causes ulcers on the cornea?

REPLY

An ulcer often begins with an injury, such as one caused by a scratch or a foreign body. Infection follows.

The Marin County Assn. of Lions Clubs won the district governor's commendation for 100 per cent participation in regional activities during the Lions' last calendar year, under the guidance of past Deputy Dist. Marinites In Command Of Reserves

Two Marinites are commanders of a 15-day summer training program for the North Coast 8651st Air Reserve Recovery Group, based at Fort Miley in San Francisco.

They are Col. O. R. Street of 15 Hillcrest Avenue, San Anselmo, commander of the entire operation, and Lt. Col. Calvin Ferris of 98 Ridge Avenue, San Rafael.

Purpose of the training is to prepare reservists to carry out wartime missions of "providing recovery and striking ability" for defensive and offensive aircraft in case of sudden attack, said Colonel Street.

Saving Bond Sales

Marin County residents purchased a total of $82,990 worth of U.S. savings bonds during June, county bond chairman D. C. Davis announced today.

Air Force Mate Died For Purpose

DALLAS (UPI)—Air Force Capt. Condon H. Terry used to tell his wife Audrey that when he died his death would have purpose.

Mrs. Terry, who buried her husband in Dallas last Friday, believes things perhaps worked out the way he said they would. Terry was shot down and killed in Viet Nam June 27.

Terry's mission lasted only five weeks before he was killed. Mrs. Terry, 26, was at work in an air conditioning company office when she received the telegram saying he had been killed in action against Communist Viet Cong rebels.

Three days later—the day of her husband's military funeral in Saigon—she wrote to Col. Gerald J. Fix, commander of the First Air Command Wing at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.

"For me to say that our country takes the cream-of-the-crop and sends them off to die would be an easy excuse for all of this. I cannot believe that because I know that Condon wanted to be in Viet Nam, and I know why. I have to be proud of him and proud of the reason he died there . . .

"Too many people in our world have forgotten what freedom is. My loss is very great but your (Air Force) team's loss is greater.

"Continue to hand-pick your men and choose them well, for they are the men who still possess a devotion for peace, while the rest of us stand in our corners and cower. God bless these men whose strong shoulders our whole country leans upon."

Outdoor Rec Areas Shortage Is Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A special study of natural resources suggests the United States may be facing a future shortage of outdoor recreation areas because of the growing army of campers, hunters and picnickers flocking to the woodlands.

The study was the work of Resources For the Future Inc. (RFF), a research foundation which specializes in estimating the nation's resource potential.

RFF economists noted that during the past 30 years the use of state and national parks has increased 10 per cent annually.

They said that if this trend continues, by the year 2000 the nation will need a staggering 90 million more acres to handle this mass exodus to the outdoors.

At present, there are only 45 million acres of national and state park recreation land.

The RFF report, which was the result of five years of research, said it will be virtually impossible to find another 90 million acres for recreation by the turn of the century.

It suggested that planners would have to solve the problem by careful exploitation of present recreation acreage and multiple use of other lands.

For instance, in future years acreage that might normally be set aside exclusively for growing trees may have to double as state parks.

The report also said growing pressures from those eager to use the areas will require more intensive use of present parkland.

This means building more access roads, picnic grounds, and camp sites. The report suggests that just about every corner of the recreation area will have to be fitted to meet the need.

And if that doesn't do it, the governing bodies may have to ration use by limiting the length visitors can stay.

The report said a more intensive use program will have its drawbacks — especially for those who want nature in its pure state when they take to the woods.

Increased use of national and state parks will result in dwindling wildlife and fish populations.

"Large populations of wildlife have proved to be incompatible with large numbers of people," the report said.

The big increase in use of recreation areas in the present generation is the result of changing patterns in the American way of life.

The growing population is one factor that will continue to keep the pressure on. By the year 2000, RFF researchers expect the U.S. population to increase about 80 per cent.

Other reasons are rising incomes and shorter work weeks which are giving the average family more money and time to take a trip.

The increase of the number of family automobiles the past 30 years also has made the average American more mobile and more responsive to the call of the great outdoors.

Young Indian Priest Offers First Mass

NEW YORK (UPI) — A young Roman Catholic priest from India recently offered his First Solemn Mass in the parish of an American family who had befriended him.

He is the Rev. Phabhu Prasad, 32, of the Indian Missionary Society, who for the past four years has been studying mission techniques with the Paulist Fathers at St. Paul's College, Washington, D. C.

While en route to this country in November, 1959, aboard the liner Queen Mary, Father Prabhu Prasad met Miss Margaret Roche, of Bristol, Pa. He said Miss Roche, her brother, Edward, and her sister, Catherine, became like a second family to him, managing to discover his needs and frequently sending him money and gifts. One of the most useful, he said, was a typewritter to help him in his work.

Most young priests go back to their home parishes to offer their First Solemn Mass but when the Roches heard that Father Prabhu Prasad would not be returning to India for another year, they suggested their own parish for this Mass.

So, a week after his ordination in New York by Francis Cardinal Spellman, the Indian priest went to St. Mark's Church, Bristol, to offer the Mass.

During the next year before he returns to India, he will visit and work in various Paulist foundations in the United States to see in practice the techniques of the Paulists in carrying out their apostolate.

Father Prabhu Prasad said the Indian Missionary Society became acquainted with the missionary work of the Paulists through Paulist publications and decided to send one of their seminarians to the Paulists for special study. The priest explained the challenge his Community faces. India is only 1 per cent Catholic.

Foam Rubber Replaces Goose Down In Pillows

NEW YORK (UPI) — Slowly but surely the poor old goose is being replaced by foam rubber.

Whereas most pillows were at one time made of goosedown, an estimated 15 million pounds of latex foam rubber went into pillow production in 1961.

New Yorker Unhappy About Present-Day Park Avenue

NEW YORK (UPI)—Park Avenue, a slum a century ago, then a fashionable boulevard of swank homes, now is lined with office skyscrapers of glistening glass and metal.

And there's at least one man who isn't happy about it.

Pierre Bultinck, whose long service in several of New York's old-name hotels makes him something of an expert on Park Avenue lore, believes the Old World grandeur of the famous street has all but disappeared.

"In its place has come an array of steel, bronze and glass towers, as gleaming and modern as their Victorian predecessors were subdued," said Bultinck, vice president and general manager of the new Regency Hotel.

Bultinck says the Regency, Park Avenue's first new hotel in over 30 years, is part of the pattern that has put the street through its most recent change —from a purely residential area to the home of many of the nation's most famous industrial companies.

Fifteen years ago, Bultinck said, there wasn't one business skyscraper on Park Avenue. Today it fairly bristles with them.

But while Park's old look has been slipping away, the new 20-million-dollar, 22-story, 500-room Regency, with its facade of muted beige stone, will attempt to restore something of the Old World appeal.

Although modern in concept, the Regency is decorated in the style of the French Regency, Old World all the way, said Bultinck.

The office building boom which hit Park Avenue has been a boon to the hotel industry, well represented on the street. Executives, now able to travel cross-country in several hours, have the convenience of overnight or longer stays at any of the Avenue's famous hotels, said Bultinck.

Few people are aware that just a century ago, Park Avenue was a slum where squatters lived in makeshift wooden shanties among the goat and cattle herds; a swampy stretch so far from the center of old New York that some chroniclers of the era called it: "The End of The World."

Bultinck said Park's history is written in its real estate—and the New York Central railroad. It has long been recognized as the home of the famous, serving for a time as the home-away-from home of Presidents Cleveland and McKinley, Jay Gould and Diamond Jim Brady.

But it wasn't until 1912 that Park Avenue really began to sprout. In that year, the railroad tracks were covered over and New York's socially prominent set began migrating to Park.

Has Trial Run For Funeral

DARUVAR, Yugoslavia (AP)—At 68, retired railway workman Pavle Nadj decided he wanted to see for himself what his funeral would be like.

He ordered a casket and the necessary trimmings. Friends and relatives were invited.

When all were assembled Nadj put on his best black suit and climbed into the coffin. Black-garbed relatives sobbed. Uniformed railwaymen stood in honor guard. Pictures were taken for the family album.

Then Nadj climbed contentedly out of the coffin and joined them all in a feast of food and drink that lasted until next morning.

Cadets Now Must Learn Of Computers

WEST POINT, N.Y. (UPI) — A new requirement has been added to the long list of "musts" for cadets at the U.S. Military Academy. All plebes (freshmen) now are expected to learn and understand the use of a digital computer.

Authorities said once the cadet has mastered the computer's use, he may utilize it through his four years of study in solving problems in many different fields, from psychology to mathematics.

Medical Science Helps Police Work

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles district attorney's office has begun training some of its deputies in the medical sciences to improve their ability to handle certain types of criminal cases.

District Atty. William B. McKesson said the establishment of a medicolegal section of his office was made after complete studies both in this country and in Europe.

"This is a totally new function for a prosecutor in the United States," McKesson said. "In many European countries lawyers specializing in legal medicine are effectively contributing to the judicial processes in the administration of criminal justice."

McKesson said that only recently has the American legal system begun to produce attorneys trained in the medical sciences.

The district attorney said the medicolegal section will handle, either directly or through assisting other deputies, difficult cases involving medical sciences. He said these specialists would work from the investigative stages of a case through the trials.

The experts also will maintain liaison with hospitals, crime laboratories of police agencies and the Coroner's office.

County Chief Medical Examiner-Coroner Theodore J. Curphey said his office was more than happy to have the district attorney enter the medicolegal field.

"The establishment of this section by the district attorney is the culmination of a desire expressed by the medical staff of this office to establish a bridge between the forensic pathologist and the prosecuting attorney aiming at a reciprocal understanding of their respective problems and . . . more prompt and deliberate handling of the increasing load of criminal cases," Curphey said.

McKesson said the value of the medicolegal section probably would not immediately be understood by the public.

"It is common knowledge that 75 per cent of the civil cases which are tried in Los Angeles County involve medical evidence," he said.

"But people do not realize that some crimes may go unrecognized and offenders escape punishment unless such cases are handled by a lawyer who is an expert in legal medicine and scientific evidence."

Mean Fish Gets Even With Ohio Fisherman

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — James Palmer of Akron and James Fox of Kent had this one to tell after a fishing trip in Canada:

Returning at nightfall after a day's fishing in the Percy Boom area, they were startled when a big fish—probably a muskellunge—flopped into their boat. It swatted Fox in the face with its tail and broke Palmer's fishing rod, then flipped out of the boat and swam off.

City Finally Catches Up On Water Billing

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The Pioneer Hotel and the Ramada Inn received city water bills totaling $13,212.52.

The city explained that for two years it had erroneously been billing the hotels at the minimum rate of only $3.25 per month.

Oregon Officials Cite Blood Bank Dangers

A spokesman charged the commercial banks with meeting only minimum safety standards.

Shakers' Buildings

AUBURN, Ky. (AP)—Buildings built by the Shakers, a religious sect which operated a settlement near here until 1925, are still in use. They are now part of the Priory of St. Mauer, a Benedictine Catholic seminary. Relics from the settlement, called South Union, are displayed at the Auburn museum.

U. S. Argentine Joint Apartment Project

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—A middle-income apartment house project, financed jointly by the Argentine Government and U.S. private investors, was dedicated here recently.

It was reported to be the first housing development to be built with outside private capital in Argentina since the start of the Alliance for Progress Latin American aid program.

Thirty-five buildings containing 1,050 apartments, landscaped and grouped around a central plaza, are scheduled for completion in 18 months. Nearby, on the western outskirts of Buenos Aires, a housing development with 3,300 homes is to be built by the same firm, COVIFAM (Constructora de Viviendas Familiares.)

Shares in COVIFAM are held by All State Properties, Inc., which has constructed living units in New York, Baltimore, Washington and Miami, the American International Housing Corporation, private Argentine investors and the Argentine Government.

More than 1,000 persons attended the dedication ceremonies marking completion of the first 30-apartment unit.

Buenos Aires Mayor Alberto Prebisch said in a dedication speech that a housing shortage was one of the city's greatest problems and that it was "good" to see a building actually completed to meet the the shortage.

Jerome Wolk, executive vice president of All State Properties, said that "even with current difficulties," COVIFAM planned to continue work on the housing project.

Hall Set For Huge Safe Conventions

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A single fallout shelter here is designated for use by 22,450 persons.

The structure is the city's Convention Hall, which has been approved by Civil Defense officials as a fallout shelter.

Britain Is Country With Its Heart In Middle Ages

LONDON (UPI)—Britain is a country with its feet in the 20th century but its heart firmly tied to the Middle Ages.

The latest exhibition of this love of nostalgia came recently when Queen Elizabeth II named the Earl of Snowden, her brother-in-law, the new Constable of Caernarvon Castle.

Thus, Princess Margaret's husband slipped earily into the ranks of a class that seems particularly at home in Britain.

The country is literally full of people who hold official posts and honorary titles that sound as if they were created by Edward the Confessor or Queen Elizabeth I.

The posts require no exertion. But they have grand, mysterious titles that enable the nation to point proudly, say, at the hereditary Chief Butler of England, and let loose a cheer.

The current hereditary Chief Butler is the Duke of Norfolk, whose ancestor received his dukedom in 1483.

He has never been known to serve at a table but he did manage the British test cricket team on an Australian tour.

The Marquis of Ormonde is Chief Butler of Ireland but has almost no duties. It was not so with his ancestors when they received the post in the 14th century.

"In those days, the Chief Butler had a concession on all the wine imported into Ireland, and the job carried quite a rakeoff," he said.

The Earl of Shrewsbury is Lord High Steward of Ireland. His only task is to carry a white wand at coronations.

The Duke of Argyll—Admiral of the Western Isles.

The Duke of St. Albans — Hereditary Grand Falconer of England.

The Marquis of Exeter — Hereditary Grand Almoner and Lord Paramount of the Soke of Peterborough.

The Earl of Portsmouth — Bailiff of Burley.

The Duke of Richmond is Constable of Inverness Castle, but he doesn't like the title because he has nothing to do.

"It's a ridiculous thing. It means absolutely nothing," he claims. "I don't even know what it's all about."

Snowdon may not have the same problems. Lord Harlech, his predecessor, 10 years ago, had to present Queen Elizabeth with the key to the castle when she arrived for a visit.

It is believed the next time such a ceremony will be called for will be when Prince Charles, the heir to the throne, is invested as the Prince of Wales. This is still years away.

The Constable of Caernarvon was first appointed in 1284.

Fall-Apart Pistol Ruins Holdup Attempt

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—A holdup is seldom a laughing matter but this one, as reported by John Grasmick, co-owner of a liquor store, was an exception.

A man walked in and pulled a pistol. Before anyone could move, the barrel of the weapon tipped forward and the cylinder and cartridges fell out. The frustrated gunman fled.

Long-Time Physician

PITTSBURGH (AP) — In appreciation for his 66 years of practice, the Rotary Club of Castle Shannon got together recently and painted the house of Dr. William Scott. At 94, Dr. Scott is the oldest member of the Allegheny (Pittsburgh) County Society. During his years of practice he delivered 1,500 babies.

50 Blind Students Using Tape Library Testbooks

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—More than 50 blind college and trade school students are using tape textbooks from a Minnesota library.

The tape library, under development for four years, is sponsored by the Minnesota State Services For The Blind and the Hamm Foundation, a St. Paul philanthropic organization.

The project's first university graduate was Andre Goudie, Minneapolis. Her textbooks during most of her University Minnesota career were hun- of Minnesota reels of magnetic recording tape.

The program was undertaken four years ago when several blind students who had been using recorders suggested that textbooks be read into tape. They thought this would be easier to handle than disc recordings and live readers often weren't around when wanted.

So volunteer readers began putting textbooks into tapes.

When Miss Goudie wanted to study biology or history, for instance, she would borrow a tape textbook from the library and play it on her recorder.

She took notes from the textbooks on her braille writer as she went along. When she wanted to take notes, she stopped the recorder and transcribed the passage in braille. If she wanted tot repeat a passages, she reversed the recorder to the beginning of the section and replayed it.

To help students locate passages, the page number of the text has been read onto the tape at the begining and middle of each page.

The textbooks have been prepared by 95 volunteers, selected carefully. Voices must be clear and agreeable. Monotone will put a student to sleep.

The volunteers must read rapidly. Blind students, who have developed strong powers of concentration and comprehension, prefer reading speeds of about 200 words a minute.

The average "lifetime" of a Tiros weather satellite is about four months.

Take Any Part Of Car

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—As a college quarter or semester draws to a close and funds run low, campus newspapers tend to reflect the financial situation of students. Readers of Ohio State University's student paper got a chuckle recently from this end-of-the-quarter for sale ad: "'52 FORD—Whole thing or any part."

CORTE MADERA ART WINNERS NAMED

More Than 445 Votes Are Cast For 125 Paintings In Exhibit

Artists whose paintings won a public popularity vote while on display at the Corte Madera Shopping Center art exhibit have been announced.

In the abstract division, Winifred Koch took first place and Margaret Sibley, second. For realistic renditions, Thyra Schaefer's painting got the most votes from the public, and Eva Diamond's took second place.

More than 125 paintings were hung and more than 445 votes cast during the three day exhibit.

Seven children won original art works painted by some 50 children during the show. The paintings were composites of work done by many of the children.

Those winning the paintings from a drawing were Susan Campana, 12; Michael Harrison 11; Jeffrey Ross, 6; Jim Lynch, 5; Megan Owens, 7; Ricky Mason, 10, and Cathleen Larson, 9.

A giant four by eight foot mural done by the children, depicting jungle animals and flowers was awarded by the center to a local day nursery.

Honor Guest Missing

SCOTTSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Scottsville Police Department held a banquet to honor Chief Louis Borders. Someone forgot to tell the chief, though. Instead of being the honor guest, he was on an out-of-town business trip.

Britons Dream Of Day They'll Be Plain 'Mr.'

LONDON (UPI)—Once upon a time every British boy was believed to dream of the day when he would have a title. Now an increasing number of Britons with titles are dreaming of the day when they will be plain "Mister."

For "Mister" is a title that carries with it an opportunity the trend of the times denies the doughty dukes, the belted earls, viscounts, the marquesses and barons.

Namely, a chance to be prime minister.

The pressure from "reluctant peers" who fear their political careers will be ruined by their being forced to sit in the House of Lords—instead of the House of Commons—is so great that the cabinet has approved legislation that will enable them to assume the status of commoners.

The government timetable could make this law by July, which would be a big victory for Anthony Wedgwood Benn who nearly two years ago first pleaded for the right not to inherit his father's title as Viscount Stansgate.

Under the present government proposals, anyone who inherits a title would have the right to surrender it for his lifetime. His decision would not affect his heirs.

He would then be able to run for the House of Commons in the knowledge that he could not be forced out of it by the fact he was eligible to sit in the House of Lords—as happened to Wedgwood Benn.

No member of the House of Lords has been prime minister since the Marquess of Salisbury in 1895. None is likely to become one again in the foreseeable future.

If the proposals become law, Viscount Hailsham, Minister for Science, and the Earl of Home, who is foreign secretary, could then enter Commons and contend — if they wished — for the office of prime minister. Both would be strong candidates to succeed Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Of the two, Hailsham is said to be the more eager for the high office. Lord Home probably would have to be "drafted."

The Earl of Sandwich, who was a Conservative member of parliament before he inherited his title, is another who might prefer to return to the House of Commons.

Baron Altringham, occasionally a critic of royalty in his writings, is another who plans to run for Commons if the law is changed. Viscount Lambton, a Conservative MP and son of the 78-year-old Earl of Durham, might also be affected. So would Lord Balniel, another Conservative member who is heir to the Earl of Crawford and Balcarres.

Berger Served At Oyster Institute

BALTIMORE (AP)—At a luncheon given by the Oyster Institute of North America and the National Shellfisheries Association, the main course was hamburger steak.

It was no surprise to the main speaker, Frank P. Briggs, assistant secretary of the interior for fish and wildlife. In his hometown of Macon, Mo., Briggs said, the Black Angus Association once served shrimp at its annual banquet.

Wooden Indian Waits 90 Years For Squaw

LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) — A wooden Indian which stood in front of a Lockport tobacco store for nearly 90 years—and now is in the Niagara County Historical Society's museum—finally has a squaw.

Officials said another wooden statue, this one of an Indian princess, has been given to the museum by Miss Mary C. Holton of Denver, Colo., close friend of a Lockport family.

No Admission Takes Saves Money At Pool

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Tucson City Council has found an embarrassing way to save money: charge no admission to swimmers at a southside pool.

Last year, the city paid $1,141 in wages at the pool, but collected just $986.80 in fees.

Stretch Uniforms

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The four members of Greenville's Veterans of Foreign Wars color guard can wear their World War II uniforms in parades again. But it took some doing. To get into their uniforms, Bob Slonaker, Paul Niley, Curley Faehl and Lowell Martin lived on green salads and calorie-reduced diets for several weeks.

His Name Is Landmark For Times Square

NEW YORK (UPI)—For almost 50 years the name of Charles Thorley has attracted the attention of passersby in New York City's Times Square.

The name was cut, in Old English type, into the southeast corner of the facade of the Times Tower, the landmark for which Times Square was named, when it was constructed in 1904.

Since then, millions of New Yorkers and out-of-town visitors passing through Times Square have puzzled over the inscription, Charles Thorley, plainly legible above the sidewalk.

Now the inscription shortly will pass from its prominent position when Allied Chemical Corp., which recently purchased Times Tower, begins rebuilding the structure in modern architectural design.

How did Thorley's name get there in the first place?

When Adolph Ochs, owner of the New York Times, leased the site in 1902 to build his newspaper publishing plant, the owner was Thorley, a Fifth Avenue florist, real estate operator and Tammany politician. During negotiations with Ochs, Thorley insisted in the contract that his name be hewn into the side of the building.

Ochs agreed and Thorley's name was preserved in stone for more than a century. Now it will give way to the march of progress.

North Dakota Farm Value, Size Increases

BISMARCK, N.D. (UPI) — The average value per farm in North Dakota increased from $47,677 to $50,624 between 1959 and 1962, according to the North Dakota State University Extension Service.

In the same period, the average size of farms increased from 755 to 797 acres. This year the land on the average farm in this state was worth $43,129. Buildings were worth an additional $7,495.

Stamps For Bonds Given By Store

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The "trading stamps" given by a camera store here can be redeemed for U.S. savings bonds.

Proprietor Frank Wayne gives his customers a 10-cent savings stamp for each dollar spent at his store. Uncle Sam takes care of the redemptions.

Suspicious Lurker Made Of Cardboard

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A Tucson woman peered through the early morning mist and saw a suspicious figure lurking in the park adjoining her home.

Sheriff's deputies answered her call and found the culprit —a six-foot cardboard figure erected by the city in its anti-litterbug campaign.

Motel Hosts Cattle

BAIRD, Tex. (AP) — Accommodations for truckloads of cattle are available at a new motel here for $7.50 per truck. The bovine guests are bedded in holding pens overnight, fed and watered. If necessary, they can also be doctored for an additional fee. The motel, incidentally, also offers accommodations for 16 truck drivers.
